Mr. Amery Carhart of Amexco

The new jets are going to open new horizons in travel. I predict a big tourist boom in out-of-the-way corners of the world now relatively untouched. Most of all I suggest the knowledgeable traveler go to East Africa and the Belgian Congo. There you can shoot, photograph or just watch a fascinating teeming world of animals. Or you can study the exotic cultures of native tribes ranging from the 7-foot Watusi to the pygmy
