OUR NEW PARTNERS

Seven new partners joined the ranks of T. N. B. & S. in October 1956 when they were officially introduced for the first time at the annual Partners' Meeting held in Hershey, Pennsylvania. Most of the new partners have come up through the ranks with the firm, serving in the various positions of responsibility that have groomed them for admission to partnership. All have distinguished themselves in their professional work with clients and in their activities with their professional organizations. Each is well known in his community for his civic contributions through service and local government groups.

ROBERT DARCY BONNER

Mr. Bonner's firm of Dallas merged with T. N. B. & S. in the latter part of 1956 and he joined the partners' roster of this firm. He was born in Ashland, Alabama, and took his accounting with the Walton School of Commerce in Chicago. Mr. Bonner entered public accounting in 1922. The Bonners make their home in Dallas and have two daughters and one son.

FRANCIS HENRY DAFT

Mr. Daft is with the Los Angeles Office. He became associated with the predecessor firm of W. C. Waggoner & Co. before it merged with the Allen R. Smart Co. which in turn became part of T. N. B. & S. Born in Peru, Illinois, he graduated from the University of Michigan and has done graduate work at Loyola University. Mr. and Mrs. Daft make their home in Glendale, California.

ARTHUR W. MICHAELS

A native son of New York City, Mr. Michaels attended the public schools of that city and graduated from Columbia University. Mr. Michaels came with the former Touche, Niven, & Co. in 1937 and was with that firm when the merger took place. He makes his home in New York City.

DAVID WHITE MUIR

Formerly associated with the St. Louis Office, Mr. Muir is now a partner in the recently opened Dallas Office. He was born in St. Louis County and is a graduate of St. Louis University. With the firm since 1946, Mr. Muir is married and has two sons and a daughter.

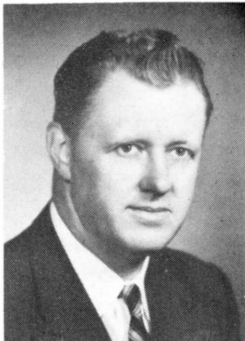

HERMAN J. OLT

A new partner in the Dayton Office, Mr. Olt was born in that city and is a graduate of Harvard College and the Walton School of Commerce. He associated with the former Allen R. Smart & Co. in 1929, and left the firm for a number of years to do private accounting. Mr. Olt returned in 1947. The Olts have a daughter and two sons and make their home in Dayton.

JAMES F. PITT

Named to partnership in the Minneapolis Office, Mr. Pitt was born in Rocky Mount, North Carolina, and attended George Washington University in Washintgon, D.C. He entered public accounting in 1942 after serving as an internal revenue agent. The Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. and two young daughters, make their home in Edina, Minnesota, a suburb of Minneapolis.

WILLIAM J. SCHWANBECK

Newest partner in the Chicago Office is Mr. Schwanbeck, who has been with the firm since 1947. He is a graduate of Northwestern University and the John Marshall School of Law. Mr. and Mrs. Schwanbeck and their three sons and a daughter make their home in the adjacent community of Evanston.
