BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Allan Boyce Adams was a native of Coahoma County. A graduate of Mississippi College in Clinton, Adams served during World War I in the famed 42nd Rainbow Division. He was a first lieutenant under the leadership of General Douglas MacArthur.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The collection is primarily letters from Lieutenant Allan Boyce Adams of Claremont, Mississippi, to his mother, Evie Lowrey Adams, during Lt. Adams's service in France in World War I. The letters provide detailed and valuable insight into the everyday life of American soldiers in Europe. The majority of the correspondence contains accounts of his service in France and Germany. He discusses soldier morale, military and educational training, weather conditions, hospital and medical care, personal setbacks and achievements, and the gratefulness extended to the soldiers by the local citizens. Boyce also sent his family many scenic postcards displaying the wondrous European continent.
