CLASS OF 2020

The Lott Institute Class of 2020

Chase Baker
Brandon, MS

Favorite Lott Memory: Getting to know great people who care about the academic and professional success of all public policy students.

Plans After Graduation: I will be attending the University of Mississippi Law School.

Chelsea Boone
Cleveland, MS

Favorite Lott Memory: My favorite Lott Memory is taking my parents on a tour of the building and showing them where I sit during classes after the homecoming football game this year. They loved the class set-up, and it was so fun letting them see a part of my everyday life in college.

Plans After Graduation: I will be attending the University of Mississippi Law School.

Cady Cooper
Ocean Springs, MS

Favorite Lott Memory: Eating at Lenoir hall with my best friends in my food policy class!

Plans After Graduation: Move to DC and find a job, preferably on the Hill!

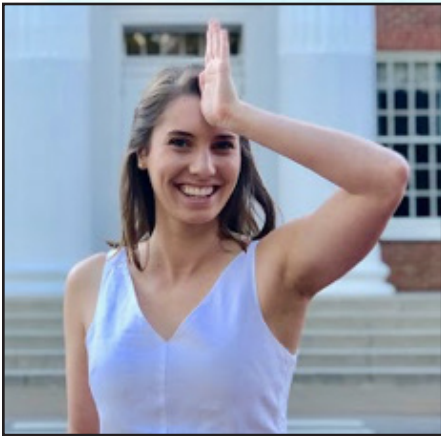

The Lott Institute Class of 2020

Channing Curtis
Vicksburg, MS

Favorite Lott Memory: PPL 300 in general, but Dr. Fritz posting a “PPL 300 Midterm Key” link the week of the test that led to a “Never Gonna Give You Up” by Rick Astley music video.

Plans After Graduation: I will be pursuing a JD and MBA at the University of Mississippi.

Katie Davis
New Albany, MS

Favorite Lott Memory: Getting my first taste of college and making what would become my college friends at the Lott Summer College for High School Students program with Sally Jordan, Savannah Day, Mason Myers, and Kat Oglesby

Plans After Graduation: I will be spending my summer interning remotely and applying to full time positions in Washington D.C. I am extremely excited about the future and hope to pursue a career in progressive policy research or campaigning.

Savannah Day
Fayetteville, AR

Favorite Lott Memory: Traveling to Washington, D.C. with Katie Davis, Sally Jordan, Kat Oglesby, and Mason Myers through the Lott High School Program in 2015, studying abroad in Israel in 2019 with nine other Lott students, and having almost every Lott class with Jamie Sproles.

Plans After Graduation: I have graciously been invited to serve in Morocco for 27 months as a United States Peace Corps “Youth in Development” Volunteer. I will be working with youth to promote community engagement, healthy living, leadership skills, and active citizenship.

The Lott Institute Class of 2020

Sarah Doty

Harrison Durland
Suwanee, GA

Favorite Lott Memory: Debating with the Debate Team

Plans After Graduation: I will be attending graduate school following an internship or some work.

The Lott Institute Class of 2020

Peyton Farmer
Sturgis, KY

Favorite Lott Memory: My favorite Lott memory is working alongside so many fellow PPL students in the Lott office, especially Bethany Downs and our Taco Tuesday lunch dates!

Plans After Graduation: I will be attending the University of Mississippi School of Law starting this summer.

Tom Fowlkes
Memphis, TN

Favorite Lott Memory: While the Lott school provided me with many memories over the past 4 years, my honors leadership class with Dr. Holland is definitely my favorite. The 15 people in that class never ceased to make my day better, and even on Friday afternoons, I would look forward to what the class time would bring. Dr. Holland combined a congenial joviality with intellectually stimulating projects and readings. At the end of the semester, I felt that I had gained a knowledge both of my personal leadership habits and those of my peers-- along with many hilarious memories!

Plans After Graduation: I will begin working for Deloitte & Touche, LLP as an audit professional in the fall.

Corbin Fox
Union, KY

Favorite Lott Memory: 2018 Lott Summer Study Abroad in China.

Plans After Graduation: I will be attending Law School at Tulane University.

The Lott Institute Class of 2020

Claire Francis
Baton Rouge, LA

Favorite Lott Memory: My entire Food Policy class attempting to forage in Bailey's Woods with Dr. Holland

Plans After Graduation: I will be moving to Denver, CO and pursuing a career in nonprofit work.

Caroline Glaze
Hattiesburg, MS

Favorite Lott Memory: All of my time spent in the downstairs classroom. One semester I sat in the same seat for two classes in a row MWF, but I honestly loved it. That room really felt like home.

Plans After Graduation: I will be pursuing my graduate degree in Curriculum and Instruction with a Secondary Mathematics focus here at the University of Mississippi.

Julia Grant
Gulfport, MS

Favorite Lott Memory: Having the opportunity to be mentored and taught by the incredible professors there.

Plans After Graduation: I will be attending the University of Virginia School of Law.

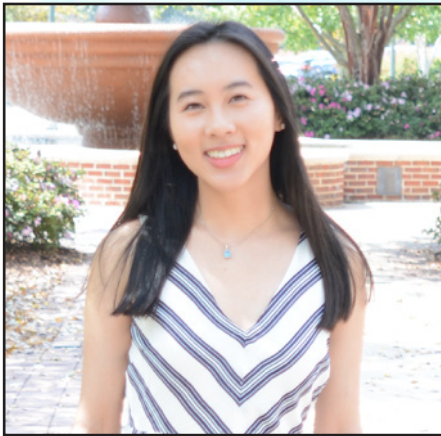

The Lott Institute Class of 2020

Wills Hay
West Point, MS

Favorite Lott Memory: Spending time outside Mrs. Melissa's office before class.

Plans After Graduation: I will be an Incoming English Teaching Assistant at the Fulbright Association in Moldova.

Hannah Hoang
Summit, MS

Favorite Lott Memory: Sweating my entire body weight before every 212 speech.

Plans After Graduation: I will be continuing my education with more school at the University of Mississippi Medical School.

Brock Huerkamp
Arkadelphia, AR

Favorite Lott Memory: My favorite memory of Lott was discovering the passion and love that my fellow classmates had for the people of this town, state, country, and world. It was inspiring to see so many people my age want to go out into the world and make change.
