HISTORICAL POTPOURRI

The following quotations are once again taken from A Guide to Success, with Forms for Business and Society (being a most complete and universal handbook for business, legal and social guidance) by J. A. Dacus, Ph.D.

STREET ETIQUETTE

No gentleman may smoke when walking with a lady. He should even decline to do so, though he may be asked to continue smoking.

No lady will be guilty of the vulgarity of sucking the head of her parasol in the street.

TABLE ETIQUETTE

It is a bad habit to put large pieces of food into the mouth. It appears greedy, and if you are addressed suddenly with your mouth so filled, you are obliged to make an awkward pause before answering, or to run the risk of choking by swallowing the great mouthful too hastily.

When you discover insects, a hair, or any other troublesome object in the food, make no display of the fact, but remove to one side very quietly.

SHOPPING

It is rude to sneer at and depreciate goods. You owe courtesy to salesmen as well as to any other class. Use no deceit, but be as honest with them as you wish them to be with you.

CONVERSATION

Nicknames are abominable, and are never allowed in good society. Call people and things by their right names, and avoid affectation of all kinds.

If your friends become the subject of conversation, never compare one with another, or mention the vices of one to add to the lustre of the virtue of the other. Find something pleasant to say of each, that you may not earn the reputation of a backbiter.

NEW PUBLICATION

The Academy proudly announces the publication of The Academy of Accounting Historians Working Papers 1-20, Volume 1. The cost is $5 to members and $7.50 to non-members. Copies can be obtained by mailing a check payable to The Academy of Accounting Historians to:
