AWAKE THROUGHOUT THE LAND

To my wise, able and good friend, Porter Fortune!

— Ken Wells

Freedom

I consider the truest freedom - observing the laws - laws of God and laws of man. When one knows that a law is kept, there is nothing to keep the individual from being free.

Another step toward real freedom is that of being educated through the head, heart, and hands - mental efficiency and alertness, observing religious freedom, and knowing how to work with the hands.

And finally, if one is true to himself - nurture the soil of kindness, understanding, complacency, fidelity, love for his fellowman, benevolence, truth, honesty, Godliness, and work - to my way of thinking, he has found "freedom" in the truest sense of the word.
