ANNUAL MEETING

The Lake Shore Athletic Club, Chicago, has been selected as the place where the annual meeting will be held on September 17th. Those members who attended our meeting in 1935 will remember it as a delightful place on the shore of Lake Michigan.

It is tentatively planned to have a short meeting on Saturday morning devoted to the new auxiliary organization - The American Society of Women Accountants. At this time the formal organization of the Indianapolis Chapter as the first chapter of this society will take place. Mrs. Ida Broo has been very busy with the formation of this chapter and a number of the women will attend not only this morning meeting but will remain for our banquet.

Luncheon will be held at the Lake Shore Athletic Club followed by the business meeting.

At our banquet in the evening the speaker will be one of our own members, Gertrude Priester of New York City. She holds the degree of BCS from New York University and is Assistant Treasurer of The Authors League of America, Inc. Recently she spoke before the New York Society of Certified Public Accountants. Her topic will be "Experiences of Women in the Accounting Profession", and she will cover several of the problems and some of the experiences of women accountants.

We urge all of our members to come to Chicago on September 17th if at all possible for them to do so. But whether you come or not, we would like to receive any ideas for discussion which you think should be presented to our members. Kindly send them to our Secretary, Mary C. Gildea, 767 First National Bank Building, Chicago, Illinois.
