1980

History session at AAA national meeting; First annual Sewanee Economics Symposium: Business in the New South: A historical perspective; Quotations from Pacioli; Answers to accounting history quiz

Academy of Accounting Historians

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/aah_notebook

Part of the Accounting Commons, and the Taxation Commons

Recommended Citation

Accounting Historians, Academy of (1980) "History session at AAA national meeting; First annual Sewanee Economics Symposium: Business in the New South: A historical perspective; Quotations from Pacioli; Answers to accounting history quiz," The Accounting Historians Notebook: Vol. 3 : No. 1 , Article 9.
Available at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/aah_notebook/vol3/iss1/9

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archival Digital Accounting Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Accounting Historians Notebook by an authorized editor of eGrove. For more information, please contact memanuel@olemiss.edu.
The theme of the history session at the AAA annual meeting in Boston will be: New Interpretations of Auditing History. The proposed program for the technical session is as follows:

"Development of the Audit Function in American Railroads, 1840-1890," by J. L. Boockholdt, University of Houston.

The discussant for the program will be Felix Pomeranz, Coopers & Lybrand.

THE FIRST ANNUAL SEWANEE ECONOMICS SYMPOSIUM

BUSINESS IN THE NEW SOUTH: A HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

The University of the South at Sewanee, Tennessee, hosted its first annual symposium April 3-5, 1980. Several distinguished business historians were on the program. Those sessions and speakers that may be of interest to accounting historians included the following:

Stanley Engerman, University of Rochester

"Agriculture as Business: The Southern Context"

Thomas Weiss, University of Kansas

"Southern Business Never Had It So Good—A Look at Antebellum Industrialization"

Herman Freudenberger, Tulane University

"Business Records: A Valuable Resource for Society and the Firm"

Those who wish additional information should contact: Department of Economics, The University of the South, Sewanee, Tennessee 37375.

ANSWERS TO ACCOUNTING HISTORY QUIZ

The quotations appearing in the Fall issue of the Notebook were taken from Contributions of Four Accounting Pioneers by James Don Edwards and Roland F. Salmonson (MSU Business Studies, 1961). The answers are: (1) George O. May, (2) William A. Paton, (3) Eric L. Kohler, and (4) A. C. Littleton. Professor Hans Johnson, who prepared the quiz, announced himself as the winner and will receive the free "night on the town" in Cleveland on April 16.