

University of Mississippi

eGrove

Touche Ross Publications

Deloitte Collection

1960

We present

Anonymous

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/dl_tr

Part of the Accounting Commons, and the Taxation Commons

Recommended Citation

Quarterly, Vol. 06, no. 2 (1960, June), p. 42-45

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Deloitte Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Touche Ross Publications by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

We Present . . .

OUR NEW ASSOCIATES

Chicago—Sylvia Swedberg recently joined the Chicago Office audit staff. She is a graduate of Valparaiso University and has had several years' experience in the public accounting field.

Dayton—Dorothy Van Zant has joined the report typing staff.

Denver—Charles Bucy has recently moved from Washington, D.C. to join the audit staff. He is a graduate of Georgetown University Law Center. On February 1, Lauren Strassburg became a member of the audit staff after graduating from the University of Colorado. Elizabeth Algrim has been the office bookkeeper since she joined the firm in March.

Detroit—Laurence A. Solomonson joined the audit staff in April following his graduation from Michigan State University with an M.B.A. degree. Jane Gray joined the Detroit Office as a secretary in March.

Executive Office—The firm accounting department has two new associates. Constance Clausen, who came in March, is assistant to Laurine Newquist. Miss Clausen was formerly on our New York Office staff. Jo Doty joined this department in April.

Houston—Coming to our staff in June is Robert R. Bolding, who will complete his education at the University of Texas at that time. He attended Temple Junior College and expects to receive his B.B.A. from the University of Texas in June.

Also coming to our staff from the University of Texas this month is Max Simon, who received his B.B.A. He also attended Arizona University from 1955 to 1957.

Management Sciences—Dennis G. Price, graduate of the London School of Economics, has joined the Management Sciences staff. Mr. Price was formerly employed by Chrysler Corporation as a System & Procedures Analyst. Grace Guerin joined us in May as a secretary.

Minneapolis—New employees here starting in June are Monte Anderson, Jon Radsek, and Donald Etnier from the University of Minnesota, Robert Smallman from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Gerald McGrath from St. Thomas College. Kenneth Stocke returns to our staff in June after two years in the army, where he was stationed at the White Sand Missile Range in New Mexico.

Portland—The Portland Office has two additions to the staff: Kelly Roberts graduated from the University of Idaho in January, while Vern Bowlby came to us after his graduation from the University of Oregon.

San Francisco—Theodore E. Wentz has joined the Management Services staff. He holds an M.B.A. from the University of Buffalo, where he was an accounting instructor.

Crista Carlson is the new secretary at the San Jose Office replacing Fern Credeur who resigned recently.

Washington, D.C.—N. Alfred Pasternak joined the staff here in March. Mr. Pasternak graduated from Colgate University in 1957 with an A.B. degree, then received an M.B.A. from Columbia University Graduate School of Business Administration in 1959. He subsequently served in the Air National Guard and was employed by the U.S. General Accounting Office.

Seattle—John F. Clearman, a graduate of the University of Washington, joined us on April 25.

TRB&S IN SERVICE

Chicago—Thomas Binting and Marshall Strey have received their call to the colors, Mr. Binting for six months and Mr. Strey for two years.

John True stopped in for a brief visit during the Easter holiday while on leave from Fort Meade, Maryland.

Stanley Holdeman writes from Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, that he is presently attending the finance school there, taking a course in financial management and integrated accounting.

Dayton—Shelton J. Sweress left recently for a six-month tour of duty with the U.S. Army Finance Corps at Fort Ben Harrison, Indiana. Wayne Uber has returned from two years' active service with the U.S. Army Personnel Finance Division of the Adjutant General's Corps at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

Denver—Edward Coffman left the Denver Office in April to spend the next two years working as auditor for the Air Force at Harlingen A.F.B. in Texas.

Detroit—Robert J. Smith has rejoined the audit staff after a three-year tour of duty as a lieutenant in the Air Force. Mr. Smith spent most of his time at Mitchell Air Force Base on Long Island, N.Y., in audit work for the Auditor General.

Kansas City—Robert M. Mehlinger left March 19 for a nine-week training program in the Missouri Air National Guard. He will be stationed at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio.

CHANGES OF SCENE

Portland—Richard Hall returned to the office after a six-month tour of duty as a second lieutenant in the Army. Mr. Hall spent most of his time at Fort Benning, Georgia, but ended up close to home at Fort Lewis, Washington.

Milwaukee—William Bonfield has returned to the Milwaukee Office staff after completing a two-year tour of duty with the U.S. Army. Mr. Bonfield was stationed in Germany.

Minneapolis—John Tuohy leaves May 15 for Ft. Leonard Wood for six months of service in the Army.

San Francisco—Anthony L. Andrade, who for six months in 1957 was attached to the San Jose staff, returned from service in April and is now on the San Francisco audit staff.

George Young and Gerald Severeid have entered the service, each for a six-month tour of duty.

Dallas—William J. Morris of the audit staff is now devoting full time to management services.

Denver—Richard G. Shuma has transferred from Pittsburgh to assume the duties of supervisor in the Denver Office. John Kadlecak of San Francisco and Don Sinsabaugh of Dayton have both recently joined the Denver audit staff.

Detroit—E. Wendell Breland Jr. and David V. Burchfield have transferred from the audit staff to management services, while David J. Vander Broek transferred from the audit staff to the tax staff.

Linda Hemmingsen, formerly a secretary in the Executive Office, has transferred to a secretarial position in the tax department.

Second National Management Sciences Seminar Held in Detroit

The second annual national Management Sciences Seminar was held in Detroit during the week of May 23 through 27 at the Whittier Hotel. Various portions of the Seminar were attended by all members of the Division of Management Sciences and by various members of other offices throughout the country.

Future issues of The Quarterly . . .
will feature articles on

- Banking Services
- The Japanese Business Man
- How to Audit Credit Unions

WITH THE ALUMNI

Atlanta—After six years in the Atlanta and Dayton Offices, Richard Jones has resigned to accept the position of internal auditor with Maas Brothers Department Store in Tampa, Florida. Alvin F. Baird, who joined the Atlanta staff in August, 1958, resigned recently to accept a position with Atlanta Federal Savings & Loan Association.

Dayton—William Enouen has been named manager of the general accounting section in The Mead Corporation's Comptroller's Department. This is one of seven sections in the Department, which has been almost completely reorganized in recent months. In his new capacity Mr. Enouen has primary responsibility for the preparation of financial reports for management and the Board of Directors and for financial institutions or other third parties. This is one of the top positions in the Comptroller's Department.

Denver—Harold Raizen left this office in April to set up his own practice.

Detroit—Gerald H. Daugherty left our audit staff on March 31 to accept an important position with American Motors Corporation, a valued Detroit Office client.

Houston—Joe W. Holcomb, who has been with the Houston Office since 1954, recently accepted a position with Plastic Applicators, Inc., a Houston client.

Minneapolis—Robert Mellema resigned in April to become controller of Designware Industries. On May 1 Robert Smitten resigned to become controller of Fluff 'N Puff Pillow Service of America. Bruce Thomson resigned to take over the duties of chief accounting officer at the Donnay Construction Company.

San Francisco—Edward "Brad" Dewey has accepted the position of senior internal auditor with the Henry J. Kaiser Company. Brad's new boss is Roy Hughes, formerly of our San Francisco staff.

William Stewart, for several years attached to our Modesto Office, resigned to take a position with one of our clients, Turlock Cooperative Growers.

Washington—Allen J. Krowe, who has been with the Washington Office since January, 1958, has resigned to accept a position as assistant to the controller. Federal Systems Development Division—IBM, at Division Headquarters in Bethesda, Maryland.