Mrs. J. R. Adams.

Claremont,

Mississippi

Allan B. Adams
Lieut.

Feb. 27, 1918.

My dearest Mother.

Everything quiet to-day.

I am in fine health. It seems more as a dream

than reality. But I hope it will soon be over.

I have a fine <sup>orienting</sup> detail for my own and they are the best men in the battery.

There are 19 and we have some fine instruments.

There is much work being done. Apperson and I are living to-gether and he is a fine fellow.

Much love to all,
Your devoted son
D.
