The Chicago Chapter of the A. W. S. C. P. A. held a dinner meeting on November 14th to start planning for the tenth annual convention. Alma Rasmussen and Anna Belle Stickgold were appointed to the Publicity Committee; Grace Keats and Josephine Kroll to the Arrangements Committee; Anna Francis and Anne Lord to the Program Committee.

An Anniversary Dinner for the Chicago Chapter is planned to be held on the same date and at the same location as the original meeting. The newer members of the two societies may be interested in knowing that our organizations are the outgrowth of this meeting on January 4, 1933.

The Indianapolis Chapter of the A. S. W. A. had Mr. Troy Thurston as their guest speaker at the October meeting. His discussion of "Federal Taxation" was followed by an active question session.

Plans for the November meeting include small dinner parties for the membership at various restaurants followed by a combined meeting at a downtown hotel.

Recent round-table discussion meetings have included Mr. H. D. Helm of the Gulf Insurance Company, on fire and casualty insurance; and Mr. D. P. Hopkins, chief deputy of the Collector of Internal Revenue, on Income Taxes.

The Spokane Chapter had Mr. A. W. Morris as guest speaker at their dinner meeting on November 13th. His topic was "New Income Tax Regulations."

Plans are being made for a Christmas Party to be held on December 13th at the home of Hazel Skog, with Jean Plewman, Betty Lucas and Annamae Goody as hostesses.

The Los Angeles Chapter of A. S. W. A. had one of its own members, Grace Fox, speak on "Accounting in Relation to the Other Professions" at their October meeting. Mr. Claude F. Weingand, Dean of the Law School at Southwestern Business College, is scheduled to speak at the November meeting.

The Public Relations Committee reports: Miss Billie Hamill addressed the U. C. L. A. chapter of Phi Chi Theta, national professional sorority; Miss Jane Goode addressed the mathematics teachers of the Los Angeles Public Schools at Vergil High; the chapter sponsored one round-table at Hollywood High School and participated in another at the Accounting Institute held at U. S. C. Miss Goode represented the society at both these round-tables.
