

University of Mississippi

eGrove

Personal and Business Correspondence,
1861-1870 (Series 1.4)

Aldrich Collection

5-13-1866

A. B. Treadwell to T. L. Treadwell, 13 May 1866

Arthur Barlow Treadwell

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/aldrichcorr_d

Part of the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation

Treadwell, Arthur Barlow, "A. B. Treadwell to T. L. Treadwell, 13 May 1866" (1866). Personal and Business Correspondence, 1861-1870 (Series 1.4). 55.

https://egrove.olemiss.edu/aldrichcorr_d/55

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Aldrich Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Personal and Business Correspondence, 1861-1870 (Series 1.4) by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Memphis May 12th 1868

Dear Father

Enclosed I hand you Mr. Caldwell answers to my letter to him some time ago in regard to the vacant lot in Lamar - You can see for your self what he values it at & it is unnecessary for me to enlarge upon that subject - The letter came to hand after Frank had left or I would have sent it by him -

Frank can give you all the news as he has not been gone reading an hour and I am rather pressed to give you more of ~~the~~ letters at present. I hope the articles sent you several days ago come safely to hand and were such as you wanted -
Your son

A. Madwell

P.S.

I have not heard from Joe Hook in regards to his lot - B