LIBRARY SUBSCRIPTIONS TO ACADEMY PUBLICATIONS

Does your library subscribe to the ACCOUNTING HISTORIANS JOURNAL and the ACCOUNTING HISTORIANS NOTEBOOK? If not, urge your periodical librarian to place an order. You will be helping both the Academy and your own students.

BIG CONTEST

Can you identify the famous accountant in the photograph below? If so, and you are the first to submit your answer, you could win a prize. The only clue we will give you is that the person was a well known accounting figure of the twentieth century.

If you think that you can identify the person in the picture, send your answer to the editor of THE NOTEBOOK at the editorial address. To allow for the delay in the mail service of our foreign members, there will be two prizes awarded. One prize will go to the first correct answer (based on earliest postmark) from a member in North America. The other prize will be awarded to the first correct respondent from a country outside of North America.

Who is eligible? All members of the Academy of Accounting Historians are eligible except for officers, the immediate family members of the editor, and those affiliated with the University of Mississippi (where this publication is printed).

What do you win? The prizes are not going to be announced; that will be a surprise. However, we will give one clue as to what the prizes will be—they will be authentic souvenirs of Oxford, Mississippi.

Be sure and read this column in the next issue of THE NOTEBOOK to learn the identity of the individual in the photo, the nature of the prizes, and the names of the prize winners.
