Antonia July 9. 1834

Dear John,

Your first letter since you left San Francisco came by the str- to-day. I do not believe it is an exaggeration to say that it affords me more gratification & pleasure than all the letters I've rec^d for a year past - Stick to the determination expressed in the P. S. & you've passed me with California int^{est}. Never say another word about your indebtedness to me or allow yourself to think of it with regret as long as your resolution is carried out - Enclosed I send you a letter written to you in answer to yours from S. F. in order to let you know in what esteem I hold old Sol Sharpe. He's one of God's noblemen. This letter reached S. F. after you left & he'd handed it to me when I went down. And then if I could give you the conversation which took place between Sol. & I at our interview it would show you that he too feels amply paid to learn that the money he let you have has profited you or J.

I'll use all diligence of course with regard to George. But I don't think there is hardly a hope of recovering him.
He has not been in Mansville since my last visit to him. Don't raise Mother's hope about the matter.

When you go to Texas make Scott send me an Austin Paper regularly. And you write me about S. his prospects &c You know how deluged he is as a Correspondent. About Griffin & Brown too. G. & I spent a long time together as Room-mates. He was then an honest upright highminded honorable man morally. I always doubted him politically write me too of the country.

Our election resulted in a dem. triumph, but the loss of the Constitution. The Whig^s used the question adroitly. Jackson Co. gave a Maj. against Can. of 732. This caused the defeat.

Coffinberry goes to the Sig. from our Co.
Hart is still Shuff. We gave 41 Maj: for Can. But I needn't have written this Forgot that the Statesman goes to Col. W. & Scott in which you'll get the returns.

About my joining you all in Texas.
You know I'm as anxious as any of you possibly can be - At this time I'm hurried pecuniarily tho, not "let back a lick" in spirits - (Believe it will do me good) as long as this state of affairs remains I'll remain on this side inasmuch as there is no such load stone on the other side as was constantly attracting you. I'm out of business now, too since the mill has stopped.
On the look out for a drive - Hope to strike one within 90 days -

We are looking for Patton & Rib over by every boat. Expect E. to spend a month or two with us -

Give my best love to all - And - I, I almost forgotten to congratulate you - Allow me - &c &c - Give my best love to your better half -

Your Brother
