My dearest Mother,

I guess you will wonder at my stationery but it is all I have here after roasts and using so much for figuring fine. I just received the fine candy and gum which was sent to me by dear Co. Clara Mother, I appreciated it very much and will write real soon to thank her. Still now I have my hands full I am the executive here and we are working very hard.

There are spy's around every where. So we have to be careful at all times. It is wonderful to see the good spirits of the men here. I can hear them singing in the next dug-out now. Mother, I think of you always and do not worry about me for I am alright.

Much love to Dad,
Sister and Mrs and Mr Friersey
devotedly,

Alfred [unclear] 14th 1918.
