Apr. 15th 1918.

My dearest Mother,

While I am feeling
so well to-night
I will write you
a letter. Everything to-day has gone very nicely. I believe I wrote you about my friend Pro. Apperson of our Battery. To-day
he received a "Croix de Guerre". He is the third man of our Battery to have

this honor bestowed upon him. I hope some day to be able to wear one. I had a letter from Apperson today and he is able to be out now.

I hope he will soon be with us again.

For two days it
has been raining hard
and I appreciate my dug out more than

This way is a
Colonel in French
Army.

Much love to
you, dear Mother,
Boyer
