Mrs J. R. Adams
Claremont, Miss.

My dearest Mother,

I wrote you a card to-day and said I would write you a letter later.

I am getting along fine and soon as I have

will be ready to leave here. I am really glad that I did not get them all before I came here for them I would not have had this pleasant stay in N.Y.

Tell Daddy that sometime when he is in town to stop around to Mr.
W. D. Cutters office and pay him for two years lodge dues and one diploma.
I told Daddy that it was about 500 but it will be more as he sent me two years receipts instead of one.

I haven't heard from any one in two days but guess they all thought that I had left before now.

Give my love to all.
Your devoted son
Dove.
