My dear Mother,

It was a fine mail last night and I was very lucky to receive 11 letters.

4. were from you.

1. Mrs. Holland

1. Dudley,

1. Albert Moseley,

1. Ruth

1. Rivers

1. Coz. Barry

This is a fine list to have remember me. Mother I enjoy your letters very much.

Had excitement here yesterday but no harm done.

I am feeling fine. I will get a letter from

Col. Reilly soon so that I can get my boots. That was a bad law to pass restricting parcel post packages. It will remove lots of the good spirit of the men.

My Captain has been fine to me and I could not be with a better man. I enjoyed the clipping about the picture and all the letters were so much to me that I read them over and over! But don't think I get that many every day. They come every five days when we have been there for a few days but not such good luck when we first move to other places.

Much love, Mother
