Apr. 26th 1918.

My dearest Mother.

I am getting along fine. I have received a nice letter from Haubt and he is getting along very good. I wish sometimes you would drop him a few lines because I believe he deserves much credit. He has no brothers, or sisters or father to write to him and cheer him

up. His address.

I am glad that
"Mike" got into the Aviation. But I have no kicks about
my branch because
very probably it
will suit me
much better. "Mike"
will make good
in aviation. Send me his new address

as soon as you have it. As soon as I get a good chance I will get an order from Coz.
Reilly so that I can have my boots here soon. I really could use them very well
now. I have a couple of pair but they are wet all the time.

I am getting some fine experience now

and I am very happy. There is a good feeling about
serving on the front
that the bullet proof
jobs can't give a man. Why, I
rather be here now
than to come back to the states as instructor, ya, many times happier.

Of course, I would rather be near home,
but that cannot be.

me for I am
only one of the millions that will come over here before it is finished.

I am beginning
to lose respect for those who will stay back home
now and make excuses. It is not a time to be slow.
If they only could look into the situation seriously, it would
