My dearest Mother,

Yesterday I received three fine letters which I acknowledged last night.

I started this letter one hour ago but just had a little gas of the mustard variety and could not write for a while.

Now every thing is fine again. I intended to have a half - holiday to morrow with M<sup>r</sup>: Crummen but now it will be impossible to get away.

Much love to you, I had the pleasure of hearing our chaplain preach this morning and it was fine.

Barrels of love,
Bryce
