May 27th 1918.

Dear Daddy,

I haven't time to write a long letter to-night but I am enclosing a couple of photographs to let you see what it is to have one's position destroyed.

I was in this position
at the time it happened

You notice the casemates and guns were destroyed by the enemys fire. But after all this happened which lasted for half a day we did not lose a man. Very lucky of claim.

Much love,

Son,

Allan Bickham
