My dearest Mother,

It seems like I pick
the wrong time to write for I write as the usual thing short
letters, I am always glad to hear from
you. I write more often because I want you to know that my health is fine.

Mother, remember I am always OK.

I had a very nice
letter from Lou only
a day or two ago.
Was glad to hear
from her.

Mac and I had a little chat to-day.
He is a fine fellow.
My bunk mate is
a regular old maid
but he is going to be sent some where else
in the next few days.
Probably back to the states.

I wish I could see the same folks
and especially you
dear Mother but I believe a man is better off to stay
over here while the war is on. Was glad to hear about

Jim Turner. Tell him to come on over.
The sooner the better.
How is Aunt Annie?

The excitement
has started again
in these regions. But what do we care
as we are baffier
when we are fighting.
Nothing gives me so much pleasure as to scatter a Boche working party. It thrills the men to full the lanyards during heavy firing. I am very well satisfied and hope to have the pleasure of relating my experiences.

Such love to each
and every one at our home!

Your devoted son,
Foyce;
