Dear Senator:

I would like to remind your office of some of the policies and procedures concerning the White House Visitors Office and White House tours.

The White House Visitors Office books tours between 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. The number to call is 456-2203. Please do not call to book tours before 10:00 or after 5:00 as we use that time to handle the written requests.

Individual and family tours may be booked up to 30 days in advance. If your request is for more than 10 days away, please submit a colored card, if it is less than 10 days away, please call as we cannot guarantee getting a response back to you in time by mail. I have attached a sample of the request card for you to see how it should be filled out.

We have had a problem with offices that have misplaced their tour numbers or do not remember for which day they have scheduled a tour. We are always ready to help you, but we do seem to be spending more time than should be necessary hunting for lost ticket numbers. We book up to 1200 VIP tours per day, and it takes time (while making other people wait on the phone) to go through that many numbers looking for lost tickets. We would appreciate your help by keeping a record of your tour requests, dates, times, and numbers. I have also attached a copy of the proper procedures for filling out tour passes.

Group tours may be requested several months in advance by phoning 456-2202, or writing a letter stating the name of the group, how many people, and what days they will be in Washington. We receive a number of requests for large groups such as schools, bands, or convention groups. Unless we do have extra space on that particular day, we would ask the larger groups to visit the White House between 10:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon. During the spring and summer months, we do give priority to senior citizens and the handicapped.

The spring and summer months are our busiest season, and we cannot possibly fill all of the requests for tours that we receive. We do have a limited number of VIP tours each day, and try to distribute the passes as equally and as fairly as possible to each Congressman and Senator. We cannot guarantee each office a specific number a week as it does depend on the demand for each week. I suggest that your office not promise such passes until checking with the Visitors Office to be sure they are available.

From all of the staff at the White House Visitors Office, I would like to thank you for the help and cooperation you have given us. Again, please let me know whenever we can be of assistance to you.

Sincerely,

Nancy A. Willing
Director
White House Visitors Office
