Dear Mr. Silver:

Your letter of June 12 addressed to Dr. Crittenden has been referred to me for reply.

For your information I wish to say that your article entitled "The Confederate Preacher Goes to War" is scheduled for publication in the October issue of The North Carolina Historical Review. I hope that this arrangement will clarify your difficulties with Stanley Hoole. I believe you said that the material you promised him will not be published until the fall so your article in our magazine will probably be issued before or at the same time.

Chris and I discussed your request for suggestions relative to the Spring meeting of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association. Neither of us have been able to attend meetings of this Association and we are not in a position to give constructive suggestions. We feel that other persons who are more closely connection with the Association will have better advice than we.

Later this summer we will send you the galley proof of your article so that you may read it and make any corrections you think necessary.

Yours truly,

D. L. Corbitt, Managing Editor
