KATHARINE REA

John,

This reads very well to me. In your remarks you could emphasize again that the report covers the reactions of black students and not necessarily our reactions to their reactions. In other words, if students present were misinformed about conditions, the report has not tried to conceal

this information.

I'd like to save
us from harsh
criticism but such criticism cannot
always be anticipated
to get ready for it.
