Dear Mr. Meredith -

This letter is to help you, not to hurt you. I humbly ask you to read it carefully -

The people who have helped you get into your present situation will not always be with you. Why not pray for guidance that you will do what you know to be right -

There are fine universities that will give you a warm welcome. Wouldn't a sense of belonging, and college friends compensate you for giving up the limelight that you are in - Soon the TV and Press will have forgotten you, yet you, James Meredith, will live with your conscience for the rest of your life.

I am deeply and genuinely sorry for you. If you are a Christian, then why

7. do you insist on remaining in Oxford, Miss, in such a hostile atmosphere when you could go elsewhere?

James, does it not bother you to know that because of you, people have been killed, homes broken over the loss of loved ones. blood shed over the Campus all because of you - how much better life would be for you if you left Miss. and made a new life for your self in a University that will welcome you!
I am sure you are not in God's will. Despite the fact that ^{you} deserve an education and all of the benefits of a first class citizen, you know as long as you remain in Ole Miss, completely surrounded by the U.S. Army, you will continue to cause emotional explosions and hatred will continue to spread like the Plague.

Surely Mr. Meredith, you must realize that all of your, fame on Tv and in the News can't go on for ever.

3
Where will you be at the end of the School year?

Wake up young man, and see for yourself where you are really going.

I feel that as a Christian I must ask you to turn to God and ask His guidance and believe it or not, sometime or other you will repent of the sins you have been involved in that has caused bloodshed. 1st. John 1: 7-8-9-

Sincerely yours -

A Friend.

P.S.

Some of your friends are praying for you, for God knows you need Him now more than ever before in your life.
