Mississippi

July 24th 1918.

My dearest Mother,

I am getting along fair but not as well as I would like for I haven't the patience of an instructor. I have 2 batteries here for instruction until room can be made for us at Camp de Souge. The outfit is from Kansas Missouri and Colorado and are fine men. No, other troops here and St Aubin is a beautiful little place. This has been a little hard for me but no doubt will do me a lots of good and fine training. Bushels of love,

Allan Adams
