Dear Jim:

I have communicated with John Betterworth in regard to your proposal, and he would like to have a meeting with you and your associates and with me. Naturally, everyone would like to have a meeting with me, because I am so rich!

He called me at home Saturday, which is a bad thing to do as I do not have my calendar and never have had a pencil, but I think his suggestion was to meet with him at State College on Friday, October 25 at 11 a.m. This is agreeable with me and he asked me to write you and find out if you can come.

Our regular Board meeting is scheduled for the second Friday in October, but I think we should put it off until we see what fruits, if any, come of our meeting. Therefore, I am tentatively thinking of suggesting to our Board that they meet November 8, which is the second Friday in November. Or does the Southern meet then? Anyway, you just worry about the October 25 meeting. Dr. Betterworth is on our Board of Trustees, as you know, and should be sold on whatever we decide so that he can present it to the Board. We also have a few who may dissent, as you know.

Please let us hear from you, so that we may plan our Board meeting accordingly.

Sincerely your friend,

Charlotte Capers
