

University of Mississippi

eGrove

Touche Ross Publications

Deloitte Collection

1962

1962 Partners' Meeting, October 31-November 2, Chicago

Anonymous

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/dl_tr

Part of the Accounting Commons, and the Taxation Commons

Recommended Citation

Quarterly, Vol. 8, no. 4 (1962, December), p. 40-43

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Deloitte Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Touche Ross Publications by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Chairman Robert Trueblood checks arrangements with Milton Gilmore and George Meitner while Dennis Mulvihill waits with a question.

1962 Partners' Meeting

October 31—November 2, Chicago

"Organizational Schizophrenia," serious talk with humorous moments.

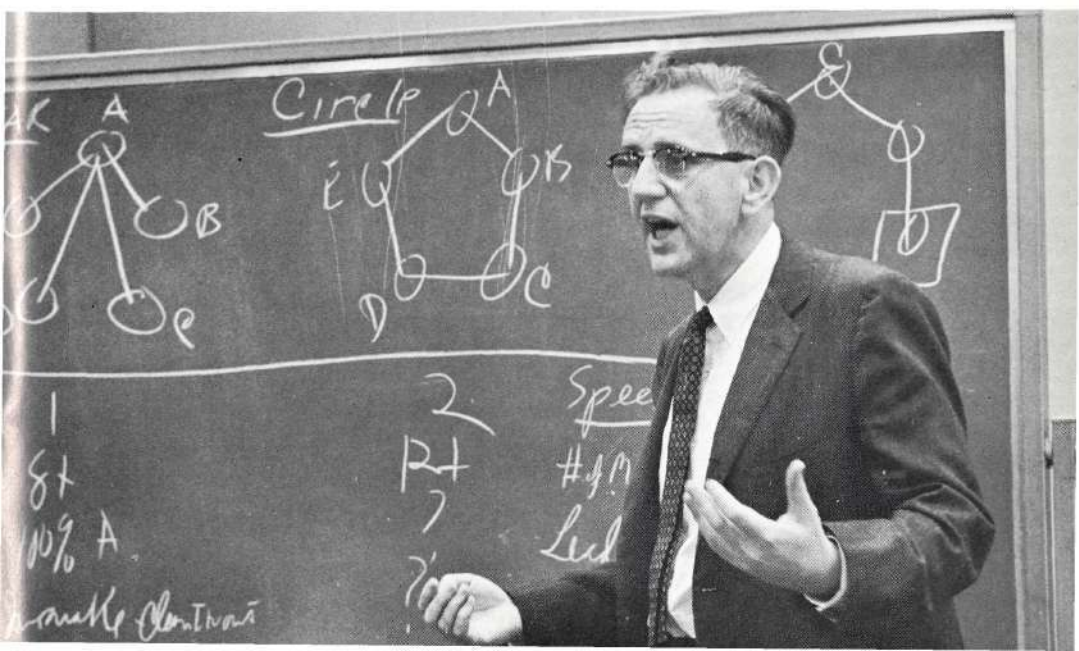

AT THE ANNUAL PARTNERS' MEETING held in Chicago, October 30–November 1, Robert Beyer was elected Managing Partner of the firm, John W. McEachren was elected Chairman of the Policy Group, and Robert M. Trueblood was elected Vice Chairman of the Policy Group. Donald J. Bevis became Senior Partner. He has national responsibility for accounting and auditing and is in general charge of the firm's relationship with the international group.

The following people were elected to the Policy Group:

- Donald J. Bevis, Executive Office
- Robert Beyer, Executive Office
- Karney A. Brasfield, Washington, D. C.
- John D. Crouch, Kansas City
- Paul E. Hamman, Detroit
- John W. McEachren, Executive Office
- Kenneth S. Reames, Detroit
- Jackson W. Smart, Chicago
- Richard E. Stratford, Los Angeles
- E. Palmer Tang, Minneapolis
- Edward P. Tremper, Seattle
- Robert M. Trueblood, Chicago
- William W. Werntz, New York

Speaker Harold Leavitt is psychology instructor at Carnegie Tech.

This year many more small discussion meetings were held. Here George Bailey throws out some ideas on keeping the exceptional people.

Don Cramer and Gwain Gillespie explained the firm's policy on leaves of absence and sabbaticals, answered questions from group.

1962 Partners' Meeting continued

The members of the firm's Executive Committee are:

Robert Beyer
John D. Crouch
Paul E. Hamman
E. Palmer Tang — Chairman
Robert M. Trueblood

In addition to Mr. Bevis, others in the Executive Office Group who are working with Mr. Beyer and have national responsibility are:

Donald H. Cramer, Personnel Relations
Roger R. Crane, Management Services
H. James Gram, Practice Development
Wallace M. Jensen, Tax Services
Kenneth P. Mages, Administration and Office Operations

Partner Richard C. Stratford's talk on motivating young people explored the relationship between partners and younger staff.

