

University of Mississippi

eGrove

Touche Ross Publications

Deloitte Collection

1962

Applause After hours At home

Anonymous

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/dl_tr

Part of the Accounting Commons, and the Taxation Commons

Recommended Citation

Quarterly, Vol. 08, no. 4 (1962, December), p. 50-65

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Deloitte Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Touche Ross Publications by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Applause

Atlanta

George Vest led a discussion of special problems under the new tax bill at the Tax Forum presented by the Atlanta Chapter, Georgia Society of CPAs and Emory University on November 2-3.

Boston

Philip Shapiro was selected by the Massachusetts Society of CPAs to serve on a committee of one of the technical meetings held during November. He appeared as a panel member discussing current accounting and auditing problems on November 19, when his subject was "Confirmation of Receivables."

Hugh Dysart, Jr. was selected as a discussion leader at a seminar sponsored by the Massachusetts Society in cooperation with the U. S. Internal Revenue Service, the Small Business Administration and College of Business Administration of Boston University on October 27. The theme of the seminar was "The Accounting and Taxation Problems of Small Business."

Chicago

On October 16, Robert Trueblood spoke before the Michigan Society of CPAs on the subject "The Future of the Profession." On October 24, with James Bragg and Justin Davidson, he conducted a one-day seminar in Madison, Wisconsin for the University of Wisconsin Management Institute on

"The New Frontier for Financial Executives."

William Schwanbeck appeared on a panel at the October 17 meeting of the Chicago Chapter of the Financial Executives Institute, discussing "Depreciation Guidelines and Rules Under Procedure 62-1." On December 4 he spoke on "Depreciation Recapture" at the Illinois Society of CPAs Tax Conference and on December 6 he discussed "New Tax Legislation" at a luncheon of the Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity.

Justin Davidson participated in an all-day session sponsored jointly by the American Statistical Association and the AICPA Committee on Statistical Sampling held in Minneapolis on September 10. He spoke on "Sampling Techniques Applied to Accounts Receivable." On September 13 he addressed the Federal Government Accountants Association in Chicago on "Sampling Techniques in Accounting." On October 1 he was in charge of the session on "Accounting for Business Transactions" at the American Management Association Seminar on "Accounting for Non-Financial Executives" held in Chicago.

Herbert Golden has been admitted to membership in the American Institute of CPAs.

On August 24, Robert Trueblood spoke at the AICPA Staff Training Program at Bradley University in Peoria, Illinois on the subject, "The Future of the Profession."

Cleveland

Roy C. Holzman, Jr., Page J. Thibodeaux and Frank Brack, Jr. attended the 1962 Ohio Society of CPA's convention held in Cleveland on October 14-16.

Dallas

Gus Tramp was appointed to the Committee on Professional Development for the Dallas Chapter of Texas Society of CPAs for the current year.

William Morris will be chairman of the Audit Committee for the National Society for Business Budgeting for the coming year.

Dayton

James Bresnahan and Leon Sachleben participated in the October meeting of the Dayton Chapter of the National Association of Accountants. Mr. Bresnahan spoke on "Accounting Methods and Applications" and Mr. Sachleben spoke on "New Developments in Taxation."

Herman Olt spoke at the October dinner meeting of the Dayton Chapter, Financial Executives Institute, on "Federal Tax Law Changes and Their Effects on Business."

John Bell spoke to the Dayton Association of Independent Insurance Agents on "The Role of Budgeting in Business Management."

Donald Custer and Richard Stamper were guest lecturers in August at the Air Force School of Logistics at Wright Patterson Air Force Base. Their subject was "Internal Control in EDP." Mr. Custer also participated in this program in September.

At the Ohio Society of CPA's convention held in Cleveland early in October, R. Allan Parker was elected chairman of the Bylaws Committee; Leon Sachleben, chairman of the Committee on Federal Taxation; and Herman Olt was appointed a member of the committee on Long-Range Planning.

At the annual meeting of the Dayton Chapter of the Ohio Society of CPAs, L. W. Buenzow was elected chairman of the Bylaws Committee; Dane Charles, chairman of the Meetings Committee; Donald Custer, chairman of the J. A. Audit Committee; and Leon Sachleben, chairman of the Committee on Federal Taxation.

Dane Charles served on the auditing panel at a recent educational meeting of the Dayton Chapter of the Ohio Society of CPAs.

Denver

On November 29 Carleton H. Griffin spoke to the Cherry Creek Optimists on the subject of "Tax Problems of Small Businesses."

Detroit

Al M. Mlot was recently appointed to the Membership Committee of the National Accounting and Finance Council of the American Trucking Associations, Inc.

In October, Donald W. Jennings served as chairman of a Profitability Accounting Seminar at the University of Wisconsin and also served as chairman of a similar seminar conducted by the American Management Association in New York City. On September 17 Mr. Jennings spoke before the Kansas City Chapter of the National Association of Accountants on the topic "Profitability Accounting and Control."

From October 1 to 5, James E. Seitz acted as chairman of an American Management Association Seminar on "Fundamentals of Finance and Accounting for Non-Financial Executives" at the LaSalle Hotel in Chicago. Guest speakers from the Detroit Office were Gwain H. Gillespie, who discussed "Generally Accepted Accounting Principles" and Henry E. Bodman II, who spoke on "Cost Behavior and the Use of the Incremental Cost Concept" and "Management Reports for Decision Making."

In September, Henry E. Bodman II was guest speaker at the Annual Meeting of the Michigan Municipal League held in Detroit. His subject was "The Use of Management Reports for Effective Cost Control in a Municipality." During October Mr. Bodman also appeared on a panel sponsored by the Oakland County Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, which discussed the design and content of management reports, and as a guest lecturer before a class in municipal accounting at the University of Detroit, where he discussed concepts of budgetary control and management reporting.

James R. Anderson has been appointed chairman of the Employment Committee of the Detroit Chapter of the Systems and Procedures Association.

On November 5, Nile W. Farnsworth spoke on "Local Income Taxes Arrive in Michigan" at the State Tax Forum sponsored by the Michigan Association of CPAs and the College of Business Continuing Education Service of Michigan State University in East Lansing.

Phyllis E. Peters was recently elected president of the Detroit Chapter of the American Society of Women Accountants.

Two of the articles which Rosemary Hoban wrote for The Woman CPA were reproduced in the September 1962 issue of The Accountant's Digest. The articles concerned "Health and Accident Insurance Premiums" and "Depreciation."

Executive Office

Joseph R. Levee spoke on "Foreign Income and Profits" at the New York State Society of CPA's session on Federal Taxation on October 22 at Hunter College in New York. Mr. Levee was also chairman of a seminar on "German Taxation of U. S. Company Operations" sponsored by the International Taxation Committee of the New York State Society on November 15.

Donald J. Bevis led an informal discussion on "Materiality" at the University of California at Santa Barbara. It was part of a Graduate Study Conference sponsored by the California Society of CPAs and was held on August 19-21.

Eli Gerver spoke on the new tax laws at the Tax Forum presented by the Atlanta Chapter of the Georgia Society of CPAs and Emory University on November 2 and 3.

Grand Rapids

Robert P. Fairman moderated a panel discussion on "The Valuation of Closely Held Corporations" September 11 for the West Michigan Estate Planning Council. On September 28 Mr. Fairman participated in a three-man panel discussion of "New Depreciation Guidelines" for a state-wide meeting of Robert Morris Associates.

Joyce E. Cowman was recently elected a director of the American Woman's Society of CPAs.

Houston

On August 29, Herbert J. Brewer was appointed public relations consultant to the Accounting Procedures Committee and the Auditing Procedures Committee of the Houston Chapter of the Texas Society of CPAs.

In August Charles A. Blankenburg was asked to serve as Associate Employment Director for the Houston Chapter of the National Association of Accountants for the current year.

Mr. Thomas C. Latter participated in a panel discussion on "Depreciation Guidelines and Rules" during a special technical session on Federal Taxation jointly sponsored by the University of Houston, the Houston Law Foundation and the Houston Chapter of the Texas Society of CPAs on September 13.

Owen Lipscomb was a guest speaker on October 16 at the San Antonio Estate Planners Council meeting at the Gunter Hotel. Mr. Lipscomb's topic was "Some Aspects of Prudent Tax Planning During Estate Administration."

Robert J. Young of the Houston tax department spoke before the agents of the Lincoln Liberty Life Insurance Company in Houston on November 19. His subject was "Tax Sheltered Annuities."

Kansas City

John D. Crouch was elected first vice president of the Missouri Society of CPAs for 1962-63. Richard V. Julian was elected a member of the Cooperation with Bankers and Other Organizations Committee of the Kansas City Chapter.

Los Angeles

Robert Dodson gave a speech in September to the Los Angeles Chapter of Savings and Loan Controllers Society on "The Financial Executive's Rise to Power."

A discussion of Duane Fuller's article, "The Business Approach to an Audit" appears in the October 1962 issue of the New York Certified Public Accountant.

Management Services

Richard E. Sprague spoke to about 100 American Telephone and Telegraph people at Cooperstown, N. Y. on November 14. His subject was "The Role of the Consultant in Data Communications." Mr. Sprague also participated in the American Management Association's seminar on "Management Decision-Making and Information Systems" held in New York on October 17-19.

Edward L. Weinthal was chairman of a meeting of "Systems Analysis" and also presented a paper on "A New Role for the Management Scientist in Developing Advanced Business Information Systems" during the joint meeting of The Institute of Management Sciences and The Econometric Society in Ann Arbor, Michigan on September 9-11.

Richard E. Sprague was appointed to the Planning Committee of the Computer Systems Round Table sponsored by the Management Institute of New York University.

Jesse Lynch taught a one-week course in Banking Operations III to the seniors in the School of Consumer Banking at the University of Virginia during the week of August 12. This course is directed primarily toward systems and procedures, work simplification, and banking automation.

Dennis Mulvihill spoke before the Northern New Jersey Chapter of the Systems and Procedures Association on October 17. His talk dealt with computer-automated operations at Chrysler Corporation.

William Power addressed an AMA seminar on mergers and acquisitions on October 10. The title of his talk was "The Use of Scientific Techniques as Analytical Tools in the Acquisition Process."

Joseph Buchan conducted an AMA clinic on the use of EDP and sales forecasting. Sanford Ackerman and Castle Day of the New York Office helped in the presentation.

Memphis

Kenneth J. Gordon was elected treasurer of the Memphis Chapter, Tennessee Society of CPAs. Clinton R. Pearson was elected chairman of the Committee on Constitution and By-Laws of the Memphis Chapter, while John W. DeWitt was elected chairman of the Committee for New Members and Attendance.

Milwaukee

Henry Banzhaf, Donald R. Best, Walter F. Renz and Donald J. Trawicki participated in a Profitability Accounting seminar at Madison in October. The seminar was sponsored by the Management Institute of the University of Wisconsin.

Donald J. Trawicki also participated in the following seminars: October 18 in New York, "Profitability Accounting," sponsored by the American Management Association. October 23 in Manitowoc, Wisconsin, "Better Reports for Effective Management Action," presented to the Northern Wisconsin Chapter of the National Association of Accountants.

Minneapolis

Kenneth Schuba is chairman of a seminar on Internal versus External Reporting presented at the November meeting of the NAA. Clayton Ostlund was also a member of this panel.

James Pitt and Einar Ross attended the National Association of Accounting for Cooperatives in Milwaukee in October.

Kenneth Schuba is chairman of the Management Service Sub-Committee of the Minnesota Society of CPAs to develop a workshop on costing methods.

Gordon Davis spoke at the Twin City Conference of NABAC on "Profit Planning" at the November 15 meeting. He appeared as a representative of the Minnesota Society of CPAs.

New York

Michael A. C. Hume gave a talk on "Receivable Automation - Pros and Cons" to the Northern Connecticut Chapter of the National Association of Credit Management on October 24. The meeting was held in the Farmington Country Club.

Mrs. Louis Werbaneth (left) helps sons Paul and Gregory entertain a French couple touring the U. S. with the Christian Family Movement.

Joseph T. Casey has been appointed to the Internal Audit Committee of the Metropolitan Controllors Association and the Statistical Sampling Committee of the New Jersey State Society.

Misag Tabibian is now a member of the Accounts Receivable Control Committee of the Metropolitan Controllors Association and the Government Contracts Committee of the National Association of Accountants.

On October 17, Arthur Michaels addressed the members of the Accounting Society of St. John's University. The subject of his talk was "Your Career in Public Accounting."

Howard L. Kellogg has been appointed to the New Jersey State Society Committee on SEC work for 1962-63.

Gregory M. Boni is a member of the research project committee for the NAA research study on "Improved Techniques for Inventory Management."

On September 13, Victor H. Brown addressed an AMA seminar on Long-

Term Corporate Finance. His subject was "Measuring Return on Investment." On October 26 he addressed an Irving Trust Company financial seminar held for industrial financial executives on "Measuring the Profitability of Proposed Capital Investments," while on November 15 he spoke to the Queens Chapter of NAA on "Effective Internal Management Reporting."

A four-volume Accountants' Encyclopedia has just been published by Prentice-Hall. Gregory Boni and Victor H. Brown wrote Part III of this encyclopedia, entitled "Using Cost Information to Advise Management."

Philadelphia

Lawrence J. Scully is a member of the Advisory Committee of the University of Pennsylvania Tax Conference which recently held its second annual three-day conference. Mr. Scully spoke on "Deferred Compensation and Stock Options."

At the Eighth International Accounting Congress held in New York City in September, Mr. Scully was an official delegate and a discussion leader of one of the group meetings held in the board room of the National Association of Manufacturers.

George O. Tonks is participating in a Community Leadership Seminar which is sponsored by the Fels Foundation to acquaint business leaders with the problems of the community. The 30 other representatives participating in the program are a good cross-section of the legal, financial, mercantile and manufacturing firms in the Philadelphia area. The group conducted its first meeting during a weekend at Pocono Manor Inn and will continue monthly dinner meetings for eight consecutive weeks.

Phoenix

Recent Arizona State Society of CPAs Committee appointments include R. Dixon Wood, Chairman of Nominating and Governmental Accounting and State Legislature Committees, Member of Emergency Assistance and Reporting Standards Committees; Ira Osman, Chairman, Co-operation with Educational Institutions Committee; George Post, Chairman of IRS Liaison Committee; Miles Bresee, Member, Taxation Committee.

Ira Osman was chairman of a dinner meeting in September sponsored by the Arizona Society of CPAs at which 28 counselors of the Phoenix High Schools were dinner guests. During the meeting the American Institute film "A Day in the Life of a CPA" was shown and talks were given by Arizona CPAs engaged in public, commercial, financial and governmental accounting.

Pittsburgh

On October 17 Louis A. Werbaneth spoke to the Altoona Chapter of the National Association of Accountants on "Profitability Accounting." On October 22 he spoke to the Wheeling Chapter of the West Virginia Society of CPAs on "Tax Aspects of Real Estate Transactions." On November 9, Mr. Werbaneth addressed the Pittsburgh Chapter of the Pennsylvania Institute of CPAs Accounting Symposium on "Education for a Changing Accounting Profession." Mr. Werbaneth spoke before the Robert Morris Tax Forum on "Problems Arising from New Depreciation Guidelines" on November 29, while on December 8 he was scheduled to address the Ninth Annual Tax Clinic sponsored by the Pennsylvania Institute of CPAs and the Commerce and Finance Department of Wilkes College. His subject was "Recent Developments in Capital Gain versus Ordinary Income."

John C. Williams spoke before the Tri-State Retail Controllers' Association on October 17. His subject was "Inventory Control."

Louis A. Werbaneth spoke at the Tax Technical Session of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the Pennsylvania Institute of CPAs on November 16. His topic was "1962 Amendments to Foreign Tax Section of the Code."

Mary Jo Reinbold has become a member of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the National Secretaries Association and is serving on the Ways and Means Committee for the present year.

Anthony E. Rapp was a discussion leader for the AICPA Staff Training Program held at Bradley University in Peoria, Illinois from August 13 to 24.

Alan D. Henderson lectured at the Staff Training Program of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the Pennsylvania Institute of CPAs on the subject of "Accounts Receivable - Special Problems and Systems" on October 15.

Portland

Lee Schmidt has been participating in panel discussions on "Ethics" presented to various local chapters of the Oregon Society of CPAs during the past two months.

Rochester

"A Discussion of Audit Reports" was the title of a statement delivered at the annual stockholders' meeting of the Baltimore Bank for Cooperatives on September 24 in Baltimore by Gail N. Brown.

At the Income Tax Session of the annual meeting of the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives at Milwaukee on September 26-28, Gail Brown summarized the advantages and disadvantages of a tax exempt status for agricultural cooperatives.

St. Louis

Lynn G. Phegley was appointed chairman of the Committee on Organization and By-Laws of the Missouri Society of CPAs and of the St. Louis Chapter of the Missouri Society of CPAs.

Patrick E. Carmody received his B.S. degree in Commerce from St. Louis University.

Edwin H. Wagner, Jr. was selected as a member of the Community Workshop of St. Louis University. The annual one-day meeting was held on October 19 and the topic for discussion was "The Liberally Educated Individual: Are the Community and University Talking About the Same Individual?" Forty business leaders in St. Louis attended the session.

Lee J. Muren was a panel member at the meeting of the St. Louis Chapter of National Electrical Contractors Association, Inc. on September 4.

San Jose

Thomas J. Ennis, president of the California Society of CPAs was the speaker on September 19 at the San Diego Chapter. His topic was "Planning Your 60's to Insure Your 70's."

San Francisco

Paul Kadden presented a talk at the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce, entitled "Future Tax Development in 1962." Mr. Kadden has accepted an invitation to become a regular member of the San Francisco Tax Club.

Members of the firm's professional staff who are serving on committees of the San Francisco Chapter of the California CPAs for 1962-63 are as follows: Gene H. Englund, Educational Standards and Student Relations; Duane W. Fuller, Public Relations; William E. Griscom, Accounting and Auditing Procedures; William J. Grismer, Attendance and Hospitality; John Hancock, Practitioners' Problems; Paul Kadden, Taxation; Richard A. Nishkian, Admissions; Leroy E. Schadlich, Legislation; Thomas B. Wall, Professional Conduct; Ralph E. Walters, Cooperation with Credit Grantors.

Seattle

Dean Thornton, colonel of the business division in the current Seattle

United Good Neighbor Fund campaign, appointed Robert Benjamin, Norman Swenson, and Grant Woodfield as lieutenant colonels to assist him, with Eloise Rathjen, Seattle receptionist, as coordinator.

The Washington Society of CPAs committee appointments for the coming year include several members of the Seattle Office: Durwood Alkire, Chairman - Legislative; Robert Benjamin, Meetings - Programs; John Clearman, Meetings - Arrangements; Gerald Gorans, Auditing Standards; David Larson, Accounting Personnel; Norman Swenson, Estate Planning; Dean Thornton, Legislative; Grant Woodfield, Government Accounting; Harold Wright, Management Services.

Major credit for the total financial success of the Seattle World's Fair was given to Edward Tremper and Gerald Gorans on October 15 by D. E. Skinner, vice president in charge of underwriting. The occasion was a victory dinner given by the Fair for the underwriters. Mr. Tremper was the first chairman of the budget and finance committee; Mr. Gorans succeeded him as chairman in April 1962.

Durwood Alkire spoke on "Federal Taxation" at the September 18 meeting of the Washington Savings and Loan League. He reviewed the new tax bill at the November 15 meeting of the Financial Executives Institute in Seattle, and discussed the provisions as they affect savings and loan associations at the November 19 meeting of the Puget Sound Chapter of the Society of Savings and Loan Controllers. He also participated in three state-wide clinics sponsored by the Washington Savings and Loan League to discuss the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1962 as it affects savings and loan associations.

Dean Thornton participated in a radio debate on Station KVI on November 4 supporting the passage of Initiative 33, which provides for the audit of municipalities by CPAs.

Washington

On October 3, Karney A. Brasfield participated as a speaker at the Sixth Institute on the Management and Operation of Shopping Centers, presented by the International Council of Shopping Centers, on the campus of Michigan State University. Mr. Brasfield spoke on "Accounting for Income and Expense" and "Operating Experience in Dollars and Cents."

Karney A. Brasfield has been elected associate director of programs of the Washington Chapter of the National Association of Accountants for 1962-1963. On October 17 Mr. Brasfield served as technical chairman for an NAA technical forum program on "Pitfalls of Electronic Data Processing Feasibility Studies."

Richard P. McMurray served as chairman for the October 22 meeting of an electronic manufacturers discussion group. The group talked about "The Role of the Government Auditor in Defense Contracting." This group has been organized by Mr. Brasfield and McMurray under the sponsorship of the National Association of Accountants.

The firm received recognition in retailing during the September 24 meeting of the Association of Internal Auditors. After the speaker concluded his speech on "Internal Control in Retail Operations," he cited the prominent activities of Touche, Ross, Bailey & Smart in retail accounting. At the speaker's request, John F. Rihtarchik took the floor to comment on retail internal control and field questions from the audience.

Thomas E. Hitselberger served as technical chairman for the September 25 meeting of the Financial Management Round Table, sponsored by the Society for the Advancement of Management.

George B. Vest, Jr. discussed the new depreciation guidelines at the September 24 meeting of the NAA Electronic Manufacturers Discussion Group.

Thomas E. Hitselberger has been notified that he earned the highest score in the District of Columbia on the May 1962 CPA examination.

Karney A. Brasfield participated as a discussion leader at the Eighth International Congress of Accountants in New York during September 1962.

After Hours

Atlanta

Robert E. Minnear has been appointed to the Ways and Means Committee of the Atlanta Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Betty Kahrs, after successfully completing her term of office as national president of Alpha Chi Omega Mothers Clubs, has been reappointed for another two-year term. Mrs. Kahrs was guest speaker for the Atlanta Alpha Chi Omega Mothers Club at their annual meeting at the University of Georgia in October.

On September 7 the Atlanta Office staff, wives and guests spent an enjoyable evening at the home of the Woody Drydens.

Boston

Hugh Dysart, Jr. has been appointed chairman of the Colgate University Alumni Fund Drive for 1962-63.

Walter Barker has been appointed assistant treasurer of the First Parish Church-Unitarian in Wayland, Mass.

The Walk-Over Club in Brockton, Mass. was the scene of a farewell party given for Thomas Nee, who resigned in October. About 40 Boston staff members, wives and friends attended.

Chicago

Marjorie June, Donald Hausman and Fred Sheehan are teaching at DePaul University's evening school. Miss June and Mr. Hausman are conducting classes in "Introduction to Accounting," and Mr. Sheehan in "Cost Accounting" and "Intermediate Accounting."

On September 30 Justin Davidson appeared as a member of a local Great Books group on WNWC (Arlington Heights FM Station) discussing Oedipus Rex. Mrs. Davidson appeared on a similar program on October 21 in a panel discussion of Aristotle's Ethics.

Joseph Brusherd, Jr. has been elected president of the West Suburban Junior Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Approximately 40 staff members and their families gathered at a North Riverside forest preserve on August 26 for a picnic. Joe Brusherd was in charge of finances and a most appetizing menu, while Frank Strachota organized baseball, football, volleyball, badminton and children's games.

Cleveland

On August 22 a dinner party was held at the Cleveland Athletic Club in honor of Edward L. Pitt, who became an advisory partner on August 31. Approximately 60 friends, business acquaintances, and present and former associates attended the dinner. Partners from other offices who attended were Donald J. Bevis and Kenneth P. Mages, Executive Office, and James G. Carroll from St. Louis.

Mr. Pitt was presented with a book of congratulatory notes from his friends and a polaroid camera from the staff.

The Seneca Golf Course was the scene of the annual staff outing on June 22. One of the newest members of the staff, Dick Brezic, distinguished himself by recording the low gross score while Al Hanzlick made the high gross and high net scores.

In the evening the staff enjoyed dinner and refreshments at the Cleveland Athletic Club and then watched the Cleveland Indians in one of their infrequent winning efforts.

Dallas

The Casa View Baptist Church in Dallas reelected Bill Morris treasurer for the next year.

Dayton

Charles G. Taylor was elected treasurer of the Centerville Kiwanis for 1962. He is also chairman of the Centerville Cub Scout Scotch Tape sales for 1962.

Sherley Swarts was elected president of the Church School Class for Married Couples of the Trotwood Church of the Brethren.

Detroit

On September 10 the annual golf outing of the Detroit Office was held at Oakland Hills Country Club. In spite of the usual rain showers, Joe Grace managed to score a 74, thereby winning the low gross prize for the fifth consecutive year. Larry Solomonson scored low net in golf and Dick Lyman won the tennis competition.

Henry E. Bodman II was recently elected a precinct delegate for the Republican Party against strong opposition. Subsequently he was appointed to the 14th Congressional District Executive Committee.

Executive Office

Curtis C. Verschoor was recently elected president of the Timber Slope Civic Association in New Jersey.

Grand Rapids

Robert J. Lyzenga and Richard E. Herrinton are general chairman and division supervisor, respectively, of a volunteer group auditing pledges for the United Community Services fund drive.

In September Richard W. Lamkin was elected president of Junior Achievement of the Greater Grand Rapids Area, Inc.

Ronald H. Adolphson was recently appointed to the Board of Directors of Alger School P.T.A. and is serving as chairman of the Finance Committee.

Philip R. VandenBerge is an advisor this year of a Junior Achievement Company.

Joyce E. Cowman spoke on September 6 to the Zonta Club of Grand Rapids on her recent trip to Czechoslovakia and Hungary.

The annual Grand Rapids Office golf party was held September 6 at Cascade Country Club.

Kansas City

The partners in the Kansas City Office entertained with a going-away cocktail party in honor of Glen A. Olson at the Kansas City Club on August 31. The party was attended by the entire staff, who presented Glen with a gift of sterling silver.

Los Angeles

On October 13, the Los Angeles Office held its annual office party at the Hacienda Country Club in Whittier. They were entertained by a skit on the conduct of an audit, performed by the committee: Larry Fuller, chairman, with Glen Sessions, John Balian, Mickey Masdeo and Karl Boeckman.

Minneapolis

Virginia Kolsrud, our receptionist, was a courtesy award winner during the Downtown Minneapolis Council Week held in October. After being checked anonymously throughout the week, awards were made to 18 telephone operators who had displayed the highest degree of telephone courtesy in the loop area.

Clayton Ostlund is serving as accounting instructor in a six-week course given for secretaries preparing to sit for the Certified Professional Secretarial examination.

Harold Klose served as lay delegate of the Wooddale Evangelical Lutheran Church at the constituting convention of the Minnesota Synod of Lutheran Churches of America in September. He was also elected to the Minnetonka District Cabinet to represent this district on the Minnesota Synod Stewardship Committee.

New York

Misag Tabibian, New York Office supervisor, has been appointed to the Panel of Arbitrators of the American Arbitration Association.

Philip H. Cohen was elected a Regional Governor of Alpha Epsilon Pi, a national college fraternity, at its recent convention in Atlanta.

Ted Schlissel was elected a vice president of the Brooklyn College Alumni Accountants' Group.

Pittsburgh

The Pittsburgh Office annual picnic was held at South Park on September 15. Irl Wallace, who recently transferred to the Dayton Office, and his wife, Doris, were on hand for the gala activities which accompany this occasion each year.

Henry J. Rossi and Joseph A. Phillip enjoyed a three-day fishing trip in Canada with a group of 20 construction industry executives from the Pittsburgh area. Humorous high spot of the trip was provided by Mr. Rossi when he managed to reel in not a fish, but a seagull. The group concluded that his fishing was "for the birds."

Dr. R. C. Cooper from Bombay, India visited the Pittsburgh Office in October and met with clients of the office who have interests in India. After a tour of the city, Dr. Cooper was a special guest at a birthday party for Louise, eight-year-old daughter of the Henry J. Rossis.

Rochester

Staff members, their wives and guests gathered on October 6 at the Towne

House Restaurant for the annual fall party of the Rochester Office. A cocktail party preceded a most enjoyable dinner-dance.

St. Louis

Andrew C. Ries is again serving as a member of the United Fund Campaign Ambassadors. He also served as chairman and master of ceremonies at his 10th class reunion during Founders' Week at St. Louis University.

Lee J. Muren served as chairman of the 40th reunion of his class at the Commerce and Finance School at St. Louis University.

San Jose

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Ennis acted as hosts for a dinner sponsored by the San Jose Opera Guild on September 16. The festivities were held at the Ennis home for some 125 sponsors and patrons of the Guild.

Wilbur H. Stevens has been elected chairman of the Council of Past Presidents of the Salinas Chamber of Commerce.

Washington

Members of the Washington Office Staff and their wives were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Karney A. Brasfield at a buffet supper at Columbia Country Club on October 14 in honor of George and Roberta Vest, who moved to Atlanta.

The Washington Office softball team came from behind in the last inning to defeat a stalwart Ernst & Ernst team by 7 to 5. Bill Buterbaugh pitched three scoreless innings in relief to save the game.

At Home

Boston

Newcomers — Susan Gray, September 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sturtevant. Nancy Jane, October 1 to Mr. and Mrs. James Lynch. Thomas John, October 20 to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gerry.

Chicago

Marriage — John Bly to Laura Lyn Rezarh, September 29.

Newcomers — Laura Terese, September 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Florek. Martin Benedict, October 11 to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fisher. Janice Lynn, August 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Himel.

Dallas

Newcomer — Stuart Owen, October 8 to Mr. and Mrs. Alan H. Roberts.

Dayton

Newcomer — Susan Leslie, September 7 to Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Custer.

Denver

Newcomers — Ronald, September 23 to Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Caine. Patrick Brian, September 25 to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. O'Toole. Rocco Anthony II, October 10 to Mr. and Mrs. Rocco A. Laterzo. Diane Louise, October 27 to Mr. and Mrs. John K. Guerin.

Detroit

Marriages — Nancy R. Schultz to Joseph M. Grace, August 18. Frank

P. Kerwin to Mary Lou Piggott, September 8. Mary Marshall to William E. Krimmel, Jr., September 17.

Newcomers — Kathleen Ann, July 26 to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Silk. Amy McMillan, July 30 to Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Bodman II. Elaine Marie, July 31 to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Hays. Kathleen Marie, August 15 to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Ames. Lewis Brown, August 23 to Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Fisher. Bradford David, August 28 to Mr. and Mrs. David M. Smith. Laura Lee, September 17 to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Henson. Michael Ellis, October 5 to Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Lyman III. Sharron Anne, October 14 to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Hicks.

Houston

Marriage — Donald D. Lopshire to Fleta Jane Jones, November 10.

Newcomers — Robert George, October 16 to Mr. and Mrs. Ramon J. de Reyna. Rhonda Rachelle, September 25 to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis G. Ross.

Kansas City

Marriage — Donna Holderby to Donald Keys, October 13.

Newcomer — Cheryl Renee, August 20 to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hutchinson.

Los Angeles

Marriage — Donald D. Ingberg to Darlene Edmonds, August 25.

Management Services

Newcomer — Cynthia Lee, October 23 to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weinthal.

Milwaukee

Marriage — William Hanewall to Sandra Warren, September 1.

Newcomers — Mark Richard, September 12 to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Mirsberger. David Michael, August 28 to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Arntz. Steven Jon, October 23 to Mr. and Mrs. Willis D. Krause.

Minneapolis

Marriage — Robert Hildreth to Kay Beauchine, October 6.

Newcomers — Carrie Lee, August 8 to Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson. Laurie Sue, October 11 to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pohlman.

New York

Marriages — Edward J. Hughes to Mary Jane Breu, October 13. Michael P. DeBlasio to Kathleen O'Reilly, October 20.

Newcomers — Carol Ann, August 27 to Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Heiler, Jr. David Jeffrey, September 27 to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rose. Beth Ann, October 23 to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Budenbender. James Donald, October 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Weinstein. James Michael, September 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lefkowitz.

Philadelphia

Marriage — Patricia M. Costello to Thomas M. Gilligan, November 10.

Phoenix

Marriages — Elza Bridges to Sharon Chapman, October 26. Eugene C.

Gieseler, October 27 to Helen J. Bucherer.

Portland

Marriage — Joyce Flowers to Robert Findley on September 15.

Newcomers — Nancy Ann, August 10 to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lemon. Michael Hocking, October 17 to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kiesbuy. Laurence Michael, October 12 to Mr. and Mrs. William Neely.

Rochester

Marriages — James P. Lawler to Anita R. Witzel, October 20. Robert J. Warth to Gail F. Istvan, November 24.

Newcomer — Daniel David, September 11 to Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Krapf.

San Diego

Newcomers — John Foster, October 16 to Mr. and Mrs. Glen A. Olson. Martin, September 1 to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond D. Taramasco.

San Francisco

Newcomer — Jill Marie, August 5 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Faris.

Seattle

Newcomer — Michael Thomas, October 31 to Mr. and Mrs. Michael P. Curtis.

Washington

Newcomer — Rosemarie Ellen, July 1 to Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Sampson.