Announcement*

Professor Ashton Bishop, of Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, is Editor of The Academy's working paper series.

The series currently includes 40 titles (see list) and represents an effective means of circulating preliminary research or topics for critique by others qualified and interested in doing so. Manuscripts for the series, and questions relating to format should be submitted to Professor Bishop, School of Business, Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, Va. 23284.

The manuscript submitted should be in conformity with the format rules described in the April, 1973 Accounting Review, with all footnotes at the end in a listing. Material should be submitted in a final form suitable for clean reproduction. Manuscripts from eight to thirty pages in length are deemed most appropriate for this series. Copies of the working papers are provided free upon request to members. There is a service cost price of $2.00 per copy to non-members.

*See Accompanying Announcement in this issue regarding the working paper monographs numbers 1 and 2 containing papers 1-20, and 21-40 respectively.

Third International Congress of Accounting Historians

The Academy of Accounting Historians

The Accounting History Society

August 16-18th

LONDON 1980

London, 1980 is to be the venue of the Third International Congress of Accounting Historians. The dates will be 16 to 18 August, and the location will be the London Business School, at Sussex Place, Regent's Park, London NW1 4SA.

The First International Congress of Accounting Historians was held in Brussels in 1970, and the Second Congress in Atlanta, Georgia, in 1976. At both there was a wide spread of nationalities among speakers and participants.

As 1980 will also be the centenary year of The Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, London is particularly appropriate for the Third Congress.

Congress registration fee is £25. Accommodations are available at London Business School at cost of £98, inclusive of all meals except special Congress Dinner on August 16. Program applications are available from:

Dr. G. A. Lee
Dept. of Industrial Economics
University Park

A HISTORY OF ACCOUNTING IN AMERICA

An Historical Interpretation of the Cultural Significance of Accounting

Gary John Previts, C.P.A., Case Western Reserve University, &
Barbara Dubis Merino, New York University

This unique book describes the growth of professional accounting in America as a developing, vital discipline. Initially descriptive, the book becomes increasingly analytical in examining the issues and influences that have marked the dynamic environment of the past fifty years. Nine chapters consider the social, political, economic, and personal elements of each generation—from Puritan to modern times. Covering the development of accounting theory, education, ethics, and practices, this book gives you an unparalleled overview of the growth of American accounting.

GUIDE FOR SUBMITTING MANUSCRIPTS

The Academy of Accounting Historians invites manuscripts on subjects related to accounting history for The Accounting Historians Journal. Articles should have scholarly merit and present an original contribution to the knowledge in the field. Articles presenting the results of research from primary sources will be given preference. All articles will be reviewed by two or more members of the Editorial Board. The journal is scheduled to appear each Spring and Fall.

Manuscripts should be in English and of acceptable style and organization for clarity of presentation. Submit three copies double spaced on 8½ x 11 inch paper. The manuscript should not exceed 5,000 to 7,000 words. The title page should contain name of author, affiliation and address for further correspondence. The title should reappear on the first page of the manuscript but the author should not be identified.

Tables and figures should be numbered, titled and presented in reproducible form. Limited use of original documents etc. can be accommodated in the Journal at modest additional cost to the author by submitting camera-ready copy. Important textual materials may be presented in both the original language together with the English translation.

Footnote numbers must be referenced within the article in sequence. The bibliography should contain full reference to sources arranged in alphabetical order by author. Informational footnotes are to be presented at the bottom of the page referenced by letters and should be limited in size and number. Consult a previous number of the Journal for examples.

Proofs. Galley proofs will be sent to the author as permitted by scheduling but additions of new material must be strictly limited and excessive alterations will be charged to the author. Ten copies of the Journal on publication will be provided to the author.

Abstract. An abstract of the article will precede the printed article, and should be submitted with all manuscripts. Abstract should not exceed 100 words.

Reprints. Authors may order reprints with covers of their articles from the printer. Costs of these are billed directly to the author by the printer. Minimum order 100, prices to be established by printer.
