My dearest Mother,

I wrote to you this afternoon but it was a very poor letter so I will write a note to-night. I have only received one letter from you this week and it was dated July 25th

and came about Monday I believe. I have had one letter from Clarksdale as late as Aug. 20th so feel sure that every one is all O.K.

I am glad that you have had such a fine
lot of preserves and jelly put up for of are crazy about good preserves and jelly. Better known over here as confiture. Our big breakfast is a "grand omelette avec confiture".

That is an omelet with jelly which of course will sound funny to Southerners.

I suppose now the cotton is being picked and I certainly hope we have good prices.

Bushels of love to Dad, Sister and the Boys.

Your devoted son
Boyer.
