Friday, Sept. 20th 1915

My dearest Mother,

Yours of Aug 5th received yesterday and was very glad to receive it and know that you had received

a large bunch of letters from me, I am getting along

the finest kind.

is also here, but they are heavy art, and you
see I only have 75 rpm.
In the bunch I have
there are quite a few of the officers ~~in my~~ that I knew before. Major Lee from Oklahoma, Capt. Glick (you remember who rented your home in Lyon) and 2nd Lieut "Griff" Lee of the bunch that lived in Clinton, Miss, when we first moved there.

In the heavy art fit there was. Maj's. Faulber and Sheldon,

The old bunch that
began their training
at Ft Roots have
at last arrived and I was given one
of the regiments
for instruction. This one I have was the old 1st Bat. and you remember I was in the Third (3rd) which

The old bunch that

Capt's Johnson, Sherman, Duncan Hadrick, Tuttle, Bliss, Schockley, Babb, Miller, <sup>and</sup> Sloan, The last four were in file on promotion list behind me.
 The Lieuts are, ~~White, Farrell,~~ Porter, Raymond, Farver, Lewinsohn, and many others. Major Robt Doyle, and Lieut Henry Doyle
 on the Brigade staff.
 But last night

The order was received by them that they were made labor troops
so they are all down-
cast this morning. It is hard for them
when they have been training hard
for over a year
and then <sup>be</sup> made labor troops. But after all, I am glad, I have always been glad that I came over when I did.

There is no news of importance here. The war is going good except I am dissatisfied when away from my out-fit,

Lots of love to you,
Daddy, Sister and the boys.

Your devoted son
J. Sage.
