Oct. 17th 1862

My dear Mother,

Yesterday afternoon I received twelve letters and two postals. I had a joyful time reading so many letters at once. There were five of those wonderful letters from my dear Mother. They were enjoyed most of all. I was very sorry to hear of Mr. Flower's death. Those Marines that he was with are the best fighters in our army. I liked him much better than the other two.

I understand from a card from Mrs. Trueman that Mr. Trueman has gone to Italy. I want to see him.

In a month or about two months ago and his knee has been giving him a little trouble.
He is all well now, he wrote me.

Capt Kelly is going back to the regiment in the next few days so if you or I will be getting it up a back in about 45 days more.
I certainly hope so.

Was glad to hear that
"old Bill" was coming back home again. Tell him "Hello" for me. Joe & I will be coming home

2077, I am glad Daddy receives my icy voucher. It should be as follows:

Whether you should have 5 fifty dollar 2nd Liberty Bond bonds about 2 mo. ago, they were paid up in full two months ago so if you don't get them soon then write me about it. I received the book and wrote you a letter about the free fit and how much value it has.

certainly am using them this winter. They are water proof and also I wrote you to thank my friends and loves for the lot and I have written to my friends a letter of thanks which I hope you will receive C.K.

The steamer arrives and I suppose to you we noticed my writing many letters on some of it. I still have part of it left. I wrote about receiving it also. Do not get me any under wear for I have plenty and can get more from the G.M. at any time.

I wrote Daddy a letter just as soon as I heard of his wonderful gift, when he told me the sudden tale. It was a privilege my heart to own and I was certainly giving me more than my share when he gave it to me. I know I don't deserve it but I thank him from the bottom of my heart for this rich gratification.

I also had a fine letter from Mr. Ship with assurances could be always
