Nov. 9th 1918.

My dearest Mother,

I am leaving here to-day for a little tour that will probably last at least a week and possibly longer. Well, it is in line of duty and not a leave but I am going to see some parts of the country that I haven't had the chance to visit before and possibly some parts that I have visited.

I am getting about five
I will have a whole bunch of mail awaiting me on my return. On this trip I will probably run into some of my old friends.

I will have to be moving
now. So I will close this note.

I Baskets of love,

T. Joyce.
