Alfred Adams
N. W. A.

Nov. 24. 1918.

My dearest Mother,

I am getting along fine and now I am

starting off a good day with a letter to you at 7 A.M. on Sunday morning.

Yesterday one of my old friends of training camp days ran over to see me. He is Capt.

Allen Boyd Smith of

Mississippi. Our first two names has quite a similarity about them.

I was very glad to see him and if possible I will run over to see him next week.

There is a lot of rumors around as to what will be our next move but am afraid we will have to be here for some time yet. Three officers from the school were ordered away yesterday and two more are going to-day so we can't ever tell what's really going to happen. But if they are not going to send me back to my regiment then I want to come straight home.

I would like to be going along with you to Sunday School this morning as I certainly do need a change in Sunday's here.

Now that I have my ~~camera again~~ I hope to send you some snap shots. I sent some films in yesterday to be developed. Here is one snapped with a little

Y. M. C. A. worker from England, about two weeks ago, on a Sunday morning. I will probably write another letter to you to-day,

Lots of love,

Boyer,
