Nov. 25th 1918.

My dearest Mother,

Yours of Oct. 7th
arrived last night
although I had several letters previously written on a later date. This morning I find
I am Secty of the school with "heavens traviall" to do. It is a full day every day

but I like it for a change. Have a fine
bunch of sergeants in the office force and they have been here
long enough to systematize their duties. It is a fine training in making schedules, running a large military organization giving and writing orders.
I am very busy

so haven't time to write more.

Lots of love,
▽ Joyce.
