Dec. 5 1878.

My dearest Mother,

I have just written Daddy a letter so I have no news of am getting along very well indeed. Had a letter from Jim Turner last night and was very glad to hear from him. I will be also has had a proposition to a 1st Lt. I am very glad to hear of it. By the time you get this letter you will be all at home for now. I am certain of will make my acquaintance all my former home. But I am getting along very well.

Xmas 1919 we will all be at home and have a wonderful Xmas tree, I will write you again to-morrow, my dear
Mother,

Lots of love,

Joyce.
