After Hours

Boston

On June 10 a picnic and softball game gave the Boston Office members, their wives and children an opportunity to get together for a day's outing which was held at Houghton's Pond in Milton.

About 20 members of the Boston Office staff and their wives attended a Welcome-Back-To-Boston party given by the Walter Barkers in Cochituate for Don and Jo Ann Keller.

Chicago

Henry Korff has been appointed vice-chairman of the Reception Committee of the Union League Club for the current fiscal year.

The West Suburban Chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce has elected Joseph Brusherd, Jr. its vice president in charge of internal affairs.

James Bragg is serving as Republican precinct captain in Arlington Heights, Illinois.

Denver

The annual office picnic took place on June 24 and was again held at Genessee Mountain. After the barbecue the more energetic members participated in a game of softball.

Arthur Samelson has been appointed a resident trustee of the National Jewish Hospital at Denver.

Rosemary Hoban was recently appointed chairman of the Finance Committee for the Women's City Club of Detroit.

Serving as advisors for the Junior Achievement Company sponsored by the Detroit Office in 1962-62 will be Elmer M. Houghton, Laurance A. Solomonson, James R. Anderson, and Arman Asher.

Dallas

Brookhaven Country Club was the scene of the Dallas Office annual staff outing on June 14. Special guest was Wendy Lloyd, former Detroit Office staff man, now employed by a TRB&S client. The day's activities included golf, swimming, tennis, Texas-size steaks and cards.

Dayton

On June 15, approximately 35 members of the Dayton staff grabbed their rusty golf clubs and headed for the annual golf outing at the Troy Country Club. The heavily wooded course presented some difficulties to many of the truly annual golfers. This group, however, met the challenge, leaving many of the trees with fewer leaves and branches. Don Custer won the handicap tournament with a net score of 70. A low gross of 89 was recorded by Dan Neidlinger. The non-golfers competed in a bowling tournament which was won by Chet Russ.

Grand Rapids

Richard W. Lamkin was recently elected treasurer of the Grand Rapids Symphony Society.

Houston

Leland C. Pickens has again been appointed Chairman of the Annual June dinner dance of the Greater Houston Retail Controllers Association.

Los Angeles

Mickey Masdeo is the treasurer of the Alumni Control Board of The Delta Mu Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi, national social fraternity. Mickey is also a chairman of the Loyola of Los Angeles alumni fund drive for 1962.

The Los Angeles Office has three bowling teams in action in one of the local bowling leagues. The most agile team is called the Alley Cats. After ten weeks of play, the Cats lead the league. The bowlers for this team are Ken Nelson, Neil Bersch, Jim Lindsay, Karl Boeckmann, and Mickey Masdeo. The other two teams, known as the No-Accounts and the Doubtful Accounts, are the two main contenders for the league cellar.

On July 7 the members of the staff (with up to two and one-half years experience) and their partners congregated at the home of Richard C. Stratford for an afternoon and evening of swimming, dancing and delicious barbecued steaks. The party afforded all the new staff members and their wives an opportunity to become better acquainted with each other and with Mr. and Mrs. Stratford. Robert Pilch, Jay Bockserman and Jay Liechty formed the committee for the party.

The annual golf party was held at the Candlewood Country Club on May 4. Low gross came out a three-

Pittsburgh

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Rapp attended the National Convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at Las Vegas, Nevada in June. As the past Pittsburgh Chapter vice president, Mr. Rapp had the responsibility of chairing the Pittsburgh delegation.

The Pittsburgh Office was host to H. Justin Davidson of the Chicago Office (formerly of the Pittsburgh Office) when he visited here on July 30. Mr. Davidson took time from his vacation to meet with the Pittsburgh staff.

Louis A. Werbaneth, Jr., Anthony E. Rapp, and James O. Rackley have recently become members of the Pittsburgh Automobile Dealers' Association.

Portland

The annual office picnic was held on the Lewis River. As usual, the Old Timers refrigerated the Youngsters soundly in a spirited six-inning game of softball. Despite President Kennedy's fitness program, touch football has been outlawed for future picnics as it proved somewhat strenuous for out-of-condition accountants.

John Crawford's team won low gross honors at the annual golf game of the State Society.

Rochester

Thanks to a committee headed by James Lawler, the Rochester Office enjoyed a family picnic under sunny skies at Powder Mill Park on July 14.
