Coblenz,

My dearest Mother,

I am dressed up in my uniform this morning after 21 days without it, it is too good to be true. To-morrow
I go back to the regiment.
Dope is, now, that we will return shortly.
Yes, I hope to remain with the 149th but there are lots of changes being made. Then we have a new commanding officer since Col Redden's death. I don't know how I will fare when I come back to the regiment.

I am feeling all lame again. I am going to get a pass

down town to-day
if possible with Lt.
Lawrence of my regiment He and I are going out to gether to-morrow He came here about a week before I did

reading the past week.
The Red Cross is very good to us bringing books, smokes, and oranges. The people in the states have certainly been liberal in giving up their books to send over to the boys. Lots of love for all this Sunday morn.
