Ringer,

Feb 4th 1919.

My dearest Mother,

I am back on duty again at the same old place. I feel pretty good. Arrived here last night and went on duty this a.m. This afternoon I went on as O.H. so you see they were not long in getting me back into harness. I have received to-day 41 letters and 2 postals. I call that wonderful and believe it is more than my share. One letter from Mattie was dated Aug. 24 1918. I don't deserve so many letters but every one pleased me.

Eleven of these fine
letters were from you,
My dear Mother, I thank you a thousand times for each word. Then there was a wonderful letter from Dad dated Dec. 26. It was certainly a pleasure to have that fatherly letter.

Mother, rest assured that I am trying my best to get home. I have been recommended for a regular army commission but I will not accept it now.

I am writing this note
in Major Robbins' office as I am awaiting to report to him as new officer of the Day. It is time he is coming so

I will close

Bushels of love and
kisses to you, Mother,
fondly,
Beyce.
