(Accounting Series Release No. 101)

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
Washington, D. C.
April 26, 1965

In the Matter of	:
MORTON I. MYERS	:	ORDER READMITTING
	:	ACCOUNTANT TO PRACTICE
File No. 4-100	:	BEFORE COMMISSION
Rules of Practice - Rule 2(e)	:

On July 20, 1962, the Commission issued its Findings and Opinion and Order pursuant to Rule 2(e) of its Rules of Practice (Accounting Series Release No. 92) denying to Morton I. Myers, a certified public accountant, who was found to have engaged in unethical and improper professional conduct, the privilege of appearing or practicing before the Commission until he obtained the prior approval of the Commission and providing that no application for such approval would be entertained for a period of one year from the date hereof.

On March 31, 1965, Myers filed a request for reinstatement of his privilege of appearing and practicing before the Commission and represented that since the entry of the Commission's order he has conducted himself both personally and professionally in a way which has not been subject to criticism by any professional or regulatory body.

The Commission having considered the matter, and being satisfied that under all the circumstances it would not be inconsistent with the public interest at this time to terminate its order denying petitioner the privilege of practicing before the Commission;

IT IS ORDERED that the petition of Morton I. Myers for reinstatement of his privilege of appearing and practicing before the Commission be, and it hereby is, granted.

By the Commission.
