American Army of Occupation

149th Field Artillery

Feb. 9th 1919.

Ringen.

My dearest Mother,

I am feeling all O.K. This beautiful morning. We passed in review about two hours ago in commemoration of Col. Theodore Roosevelt. It is Sunday and almost noon. We sent over a Ford jitney after a friend of Maj. Robbins to come over and take dinner with us. She is a middle aged lady in the Y.M.C.A. and is said to be a very brilliant talker. We appreciate hearing an american lady talk, I had lots of fun talking to the nurses when I was in the hospital at Coblenz.

They were a sweet bunch of ladies and girls.

We go out on manoeuvres again to-morrow and I am supposed to be Battalion Observation Officer up with the infantry.
It will be 165 (New York) Inf.
The last time it was the 166 (Ohio) Inf.

It looks now that we will not start away from here on that homeward journey until March. I don't think there is any doubt about it being true that we are going to be on our way in March. Colonel "Hank" J. Reddy is back and every one is stepping on pins again although we are glad to see him back for he says he is going to take us back home ~~that~~ right away.

Love to all,

fondly,

Boyer
