The 16th Annual Partners' Meeting was held at the Drake-Oakbrook Hotel in Chicago October 30 to November 1. Robert Beyer was again named Managing Partner of the firm and Robert M. Trueblood was named Chairman of the Policy Group. Others selected to the Policy Group are:

- Robert Beyer, Executive office
- Karney A. Brasfield, Washington, D. C.
- William K. Carson, New York
- John Crouch, Kansas City
- Milton M. Gilmore, San Francisco
- Gerald E. Gorans, Seattle
- Paul E. Hamman, Detroit
- Allen Howard, Chicago
- Kenneth S. Reames, Detroit
- Richard C. Stratford, Los Angeles
- E. Palmer Tang, Minneapolis
- William W. Wertz, Executive office

This year considerable time was given to workshop sessions so that individual groups of partners could discuss technical subjects and administrative matters of special interest. (Photos A & B) One highlight of the meeting was a talk by William Golden, Chairman of the Board, Kirkeby-Natus Corporation on "What the Board of Directors Expects of Accountants."

At a dinner on Thursday evening, William Wertz presented engraved silver trays to each of the new Advisory Partners (Photos C and D) They are:

| Hugo R. Breiden | George F. Meitner |
| Howard D. Hull | Jackson W. Smart |
| Howard H. McConnell, Sr. | Edward P. Tremper |
| John W. McEachren | |

The attendance of both George L. C. Touche and Howard Ross made possible the first photograph of "Touche, Ross, Bailey & Smart." Mr. Touche is the son of Sir George Touche who founded George A. Touche & Co. in London in 1898, and Mr. Ross is the son of P. S. Ross who founded the Canadian firm of P. S. Ross & Son in 1858. Shown in Photo E are Messrs G. L. C. Touche, George D. Bailey, Jackson W. Smart and Howard I. Ross.

At the meeting, in addition to Mr. Ross, W. M. Brace, Gerald Fisch, and Bruce Willis attended from Canada. Enrique Carstens came from Mexico. The partners were also pleased to have advisory partners George Bailey, Frank Hawley, Ralph Hunt, George Ludolph, Wayne E. Mayhew, William Waggoner, William Bechert and Henry Mendes in attendance.
