4 or 5 days and would only mail the latest one.
Mother; I have been writing a card or letter and often both almost every day this month.

I am very sorry that ~~it~~ nothing has been heard from Luther lately and if I can hear any thing from him I will let you know at once. I haven't had a line from him in six months. I feel sure he is alright. Cases of this kind happen all the time.

Ringgen, Germany.
Feb. 18th 1919.

My dear Mother,
Yours of Jan. 27th received and was welcomed. It seems that my mail was very scarce in coming to you during January.
In the first place my letters were irregularly mailed for the reason that a big part of the time in December I was where there was no American P.O. handy. Often I would go to mail letters when I had written several in.

Many times have I thought of the advices you gave me while at home and I see now how true they were. Mother, I will soon be with you again. You are the grandest lady and the sweetest Mother in the world. I love you with all my heart and I don't think you will find me out trying to get married as soon as I get home. I have no one in view and have not had since about last March.

Yes, I remember Estes very well when he was in Clinton, I believe he will make a very good pastor. I am very sorry to hear that Bro. Shapford is getting very old. But Mother dear I am not worthy to take his place in the Sunday School. It has been necessary for me to change somewhat and I feel like I would be a hypocrite to try to step in and take make for the following day. We consider (not real) that the situation is thus: The armistice is broken. The Germans have crossed the Rhine at a certain point north of us and we have to drive them back and capture the bridge head.

No further news to-night. I will bid you and all the family a fond good-night.

Lots of love,
Boyce.

I am not quite as heavy as I was in November last. Still the last spell of sickness did not hurt me very much. The weather is much warmer the last two days and I hope spring has really started.

We have some boxing on for to-night but I didn't go over as I saw two or three bouts to-day.

To-morrow we have some reconnaissances to
