My dearest Mother,

I write a note this morning to let you know I am all O.K.

Yesterday was Sunday and Major Robbins had a couple of lady friends out to dinner. So that made four ladies for dinner. In the afternoon I had a couple of horses saddled and Miss Armstrong and I went for a home back ride. To my surprise, she rides real well. I have a very good and fast horse. It is the fastest trotter in the battery.

Last night Monk, invited Kelly and I over to Coerich to take dinner with him. We three and a Lt. Satter were together and had a fine meal with music afterwards by one of the men in his battery. Also had some German kids
to play piano and mandolin for us. We three are going down sometimes and have a picnic made altogether as we have been together almost two years.

We expected the big review to-day but have heard nothing from
it. Maybe it will be to-morrow. We are all ready at a moment's notice. Have firing pistols to-day. We ~~will~~ ^{will} fire up the ammunition before we leave here as it is an order.

Mother, I will close
now as a couple of officers have come in to eat breakfast.

Love to all.
