Dear Mr. Meredith,

I'm very sorry about the trouble there is at your college. I feel very sorry for you having to be persecuted and called horrible names.

I hear that one of your subjects is Spanish. I took it last year when I was in the seventh grade. It was loads of fun. At the end of the year our teacher took us to a Mexican restaurant for dinner. I also find Colonial Living very interesting also.

It must make you feel good to know that a relative of mine during the Civil War. I know it would make me feel good.

I'm in the ~~sixth~~ eighth grade at John F. Baskin Junior High in Springfield, Mo.

My mother was raised in Richmond, Va where she lived in a negro neighborhood. Her father owned a grocery store there.

That's about all for now, and please write me, I'd love to hear from you, I'd be very proud!

Sincerely,
Alline Fetter
