DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY
HALIFAX, N. S.

October 3, 1962.

The President,
Students' Representative Council,
University of Mississippi,
Oxford, Mississippi.

Dear Sir,

The recent denials of registration to James H. Meredith at the University of Mississippi by state and university officials have provoked a most unfavorable reaction among the students of Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada, and in consequence, the Council of the Students of Dalhousie University has un-animously endorsed the following resolution:

RESOLVED: "The Council of the Students of Dalhousie University strongly disapproves of the racial policy followed by the University of Mississippi and urges the Students' Representative Council of the University of Mississippi to take the lead in bringing about a more liberal racial policy."

Sincerely,

A. J. Robertson

President, Council of the Students,
