IN MEMORIAM

John L. Carey (1904-1987)

John L. Carey, who for 38 years was the Institute's chief staff executive, died in Salisbury, Connecticut, on October 24. Mr. Carey joined the staff in 1925, shortly after his graduation from Yale University. He was an integral part of virtually all developments in the profession until his retirement in 1969. His particular forte was in the ethics area and in communicating the history of the profession. He was the first non-CPA to have been awarded the AICPA's Gold Medal for Distinguished Service.
