AICPA VOLUNTEER HANDBOOK 1999/2000

Release #2 – Created on: 04/18/00 11:48 AM

This Handbook provides information on AICPA members and non-members currently participating on one or more volunteer groups such as a committee, board, panel or task force.

The Handbook is a living document and new electronic updates to the Handbook will be provided frequently throughout the year.

The accuracy of data within the Handbook is in part dependent on the suggested corrections we receive from volunteers and others.

If the reader notices any data that is incorrect we strongly urge you to contact the AICPA Committee Appointments team so that we may promptly make any needed changes.

Suggestions / Changes / Comments can be sent to handbook@aicpa.org or call; Andrea Singletary at 212-596-6097 or David Ray at 212-596-6030

Overview of AICPA and Its Committee Structure

MISSION STATEMENT AND STRATEGIC THEMES

AICPA MISSION STATEMENT

The AICPA is committed to global preeminence in enabling its members to provide value-added services that optimize clients', employers' and other users' decision-making effectiveness, ever mindful of the profession's covenant to serve the public interest with integrity and objectivity.

AICPA STRATEGIC THEMES

These Strategic Themes establish the framework for AICPA planning activities. They are intended to guide the development and alignment of AICPA activities to the CPA vision.

- Enabling Members to Deliver*
- Driving Markets to Members*
- Mobilizing The Membership*
- Representing Members*
- Establishing Rules and Regulations*
- Protecting the Public Interest*
- Being More Competitive in the Marketplace*

ROLE OF VOLUNTEER MEMBERS

The AICPA's mission is carried out through the volunteer work of approximately 2,000 members serving on the Institute's governing Council, Board of Directors, and its boards, committees, subcommittees, and task forces. Council is the governing body of the AICPA with 263 members from every state and U.S. licensing jurisdiction. It meets twice a year and is responsible for establishing the Institute's general policy. It is composed of AICPA members from each state/jurisdiction. One AICPA member is designated by each state society for a one-year term and members from state societies with vacancies on Council are elected each year for a three-year term. In addition, the 23 members of the Board of Directors, past Institute Chairs, and 21 members-at-large serve on Council.

The Board of Directors acts as the executive committee of Council, directing Institute activities between Council meetings: It meets five times a year. The 23-member board includes 16 directors and three public members who serve for three-year terms; the chair, vice chair, and immediate past chair; and the president, who is a member of the Institute staff.

Each year, the chair of the Board of Directors appoints approximately 1,300 members to serve on committees and subcommittees, and all major segments of the membership are represented. Another approximately 500 members serve on boards, committees, and task forces that are separate from the appointments by the Board chair.

COMMITTEE TERMINOLOGY

Board

The bylaws for a Board of Directors, a Joint Trial Board, an AICPA Peer Review Board and a Board of Examiners. Hence the term "Board" is used in connection with these bodies.

Special Committee

A special committee is a committee appointed by the Board of Directors or by the Chair of the Board solely to undertake a special one-time project and to be disbanded upon the completion of that mission. A special committee is distinguished from a task force by the fact that it is not responsible to an activity executive committee and is not created or appointed by an activity executive committee chair.

Division

A division is the combination of executive committees, subcommittees, task forces and staff having responsibility for a major area of activity and assigned divisional status by the Chair of the Board with the concurrence of the Board of Directors when required by the bylaws.

Executive Committee

An executive committee is the standing parent group responsible for policy-setting in an area of activity that has been assigned divisional status. Executive committee members are appointed by the Chair of the Board with the concurrence of the Board of Directors when required by the bylaws.

Committee

A committee is a standing committee responsible for policy-setting in an area of activity that has not been assigned divisional status. Committee members are appointed by the Chair of the Board with the concurrence of the Board of Directors when required by the bylaws. Committees designated as advisory are not responsible for policy-setting, but are appointed to provide the views of membership groups to policy-setting boards and committees.

Subcommittee

A subcommittee is standing group which may be entirely or partially composed of some of the members of the related executive committee or committee or may be composed entirely of other persons. Subcommittees shall be appointed by the Chair of the Board except that a planning subcommittee may be appointed by the chair of the related executive committee or committee. The work of a subcommittee is subject to overall review by the related executive committee or committee.

Task Force

A task force is a group appointed to undertake a specific project which will terminate on the completion of its assignment. It may be entirely or partially composed of some of the members of the related executive committee or committee or may be composed entirely of other persons. A task force is appointed by and reports to the chair of the related executive committee or committee.

Technical Resource Panels

Technical Resource Panels will identify technical issues in their areas of responsibility, make recommendations to and assist standing Committees in forming Task Forces to develop comments to represent members tax interests in Washington, and help maintain appropriate liaisons with government and other organizations. Resource Panels will be small and proactive, with members who are current and knowledgeable in the assigned technical areas. Technical Resource Panels will work in the areas of greatest interest to our members, including legislative and regulatory activity.

Senior Committees

The bylaws provide that the Council may designate committees as "senior" committees. Appointments to a senior committee require the approval of the Board of Directors. The following committees have been designated as senior:

- Accounting and Review Services Committee
- Accounting Standards Executive Committee
- AICPA Peer Review Board
- Assurance Services Executive Committee
- Auditing Standards Board
- Board of Examiners
- CPE Executive Committee
- Information Technology Executive Committee
- Consulting Services Executive Committee
- Personal Financial Planning Executive Committee
- PCPS Executive Committee
- Professional Ethics Executive Committee
- SEC Practice Section Executive Committee
- Tax Executive Committee

The following senior committees have been designated as "senior technical" committees and are authorized to make public statements, without clearance from the Council or the Board of Directors, on matters related to their area of practice:

- Accounting and Review Services Committee
- Accounting Standards Executive Committee
- AICPA Peer Review Board
- Assurance Services Executive Committee
- Auditing Standards Board
- Consulting Services Executive Committee
- Personal Financial Planning Executive Committee
- PCPS Executive Committee
- Professional Ethics Executive Committee
- SEC Practice Section Executive Committee
- Tax Executive Committee

VISION AND VALUES

In carrying out the mission and objectives of the AICPA and supporting the work of the Institute's committees, the staff of the AICPA developed the following Vision and Values Statement to guide them in their efforts:

The AICPA is the Premier National Professional Association in the United States. Our employees are a diverse, Unified Team Who:

- Are committed to member service and the public interest, providing the highest quality products, services, and support possible.
- Listen and respond to the needs and expectations of members, prospective members, the public, and one another.

- Serve members with excellence.
- Act with the highest ethical behavior, performing with integrity and professionalism.
- Are committed to learning and using new or existing tools and technology to its maximum potential.
- Are responsive to others in a respectful and courteous manner.
- Embrace change and approach challenges with "can do" enthusiasm and creative thinking.
- Constantly seek opportunities to attract and retain members, offer additional products or services, reduce costs, and improve productivity.
- Are empowered to problem-solve and make decisions with the expectation of support by the AICPA.

The AICPA is Committed to Providing Its Employees With:

- Timely training to acquire the knowledge and skills needed for current and future jobs.
- Opportunity for professional and personal growth through job enlargement, rotation, and education.
- A team environment that fosters participation, diversity, differences of opinion, and a commitment to excellence.
- Technology and related training and support needed to do an effective job within budget limitations.
- A system that recognizes and rewards outstanding performance, ongoing contributions and innovations of individuals and teams within the AICPA.
- Empowerment to problem-solve and make accountable and responsible decisions.
- A process that respects and utilizes contributions from staff throughout the Institute.
- Opportunities for promotion from within, when qualified and possible.
- Above all, a professional environment that values open and candid communications based on honesty, trust, respect, healthy competition, and conflict resolution.

AICPA BOARD POLICY STATEMENT ON DISCRIMINATION AND SEXUAL AND OTHER FORMS OF HARASSMENT IN THE WORKPLACE

Committee members are reminded that the following AICPA Board Policy Statement which was recently published in The CPA Letter applies not only to Institute Staff but also to all committee members while engaged in committee activities.

The purpose of this statement is to reaffirm the policy of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants of condemning discrimination and sexual and other forms of harassment – which are violations of federal, state and municipal law – in the accounting workplace and the client organizations our members serve. The AICPA believes that incidents of discrimination and harassment are inexcusable and should not be tolerated in the accounting profession.

The AICPA encourages all employers in the accounting profession, regardless of size, to condemn discrimination and harassment of all kinds by communicating to their management and employees that such discrimination and harassment will not be tolerated; that they will investigate complaints of such discrimination and harassment immediately and confidentially; and take whatever action is necessary, including dismissal of personnel, to eliminate the problem. The AICPA also encourages all such employers to attempt to prevent discrimination and harassment of all kinds through the adoption of comprehensive policies and by implementing education programs to inform management and employees of their rights and obligations under such policies.

No person, either male or female, professional or administrative, should be subject to unsolicited and unwelcomed verbal or physical conduct of a discriminatory or sexual nature. Such conduct could include stereotyped or demeaning remarks or gestures offensive to either gender or to racial, ethnic or religious groups. Accordingly, all professional and administrative personnel who believe they have been subjected to discrimination or harassment from other personnel or third parties should be encouraged to report such incidents or conduct to appropriate persons in the organization immediately to assure that suitable actions are taken to curtail and prevent such conduct.

In the event of substantiated discrimination or harassment by a client, customer, supplier or another employee, the organization's management should take prompt remedial action to ensure a discrimination/harassment-free workplace for the individual. Although there are limits on the ability to influence client or supplier behavior, possible remedial steps could include immediate discussion with the client, sending a letter of objection or refusal to continue the business relationship. In any event, the message should be clear that such conduct will not be tolerated and must stop immediately. All workplace policies against discrimination and harassment should be clear that it is the obligation of every person within the organization to comply with the policies against discrimination and harassment in both practice and spirit.

The AICPA is committed to raising awareness about discrimination and sexual and other forms of harassment and its prevention in the accounting workplace through the following activities:

- Publishing articles in the Practicing CPA and the Journal of Accountancy relevant to the identification, prevention and resolution of discrimination/harassment complaints.
- Publishing guidance for firms in the Management of an Accounting Practice Handbook for the establishment and management of an antidiscrimination/harassment policy, including a sample of such policy.
- Presenting educational workshops that enhance awareness of such discriminatory/harassment conduct and its prevention.

Assurance Services Executive Committee

Objective: To analyze and report on the current state and future of the audit/assurance function and the trends shaping the audit/assurance environment, focusing on the current and changing needs of users of decision making information and other stakeholders in the audit/assurance process and how best to improve the related services provided to those parties. The Committee shall consider whether the definition of the audit/assurance function should be modified or supplemented and whether the profession needs an additional set of concepts. In formulating recommendations for improvement and ideas for implementation the Committee shall balance practicality, vision, and the need for change which the study reveals and shall take a long view (e.g., five to ten years or longer).

Auditing Standards Board

Objective: To develop and communicate performance and reporting standards and practice guidance that enable the public auditing profession to provide high quality objective attestation services at a reasonable cost and in the best interests of the profession and the beneficiaries of those services, with the ultimate purpose of serving the public interest.

Major Project: 1. Increase the understandability and flexibility of the attestation standards to enable more service opportunities. May involve proposing amendments to the attestation standards and the development of other forms of professional guidance. 2. Establish a framework for attestable measurement criteria to clarify for practitioners and others the characteristics of "reasonable" criteria. 3. Define and develop guidance on "continuous auditing" or "continuous assurance". 4. Assess the effects of audit reengineering on the professional standards. 5. Develop additional guidance in areas where public expectations are perceived as not being met. Possible areas include going concern, illegal acts, related parties, and fraud. 6. Implement recommendations to improve standards setting processes to increase committee effectiveness and enhance the utility of audit and attest guidance.

SPECIAL QUALIFICATIONS: Members in public practice with concentration in audit and attest engagements. Conversant with professional standards.

AICPA International Auditing Standards Subcommittee

Objective: Support (1) the ASB's leadership role in the development of international auditing standards and (2) the effort to achieve greater convergence between U.S. and international auditing standards.

Subcommittee activities include: (1) Providing technical advice and support to the AICPA's representative on and technical advisors to the International Auditing Practices Committee; (2) Commenting on exposure drafts of international auditing and assurance standards; (3) Participate in, or identify U.S. volunteer participants for, specific international standards setting projects; (4) Identify opportunities for establishing standards and conducting research jointly with other standard setters; (5) Analyze differences between U.S. and international standards and make recommendations to the ASB on means of enhancing convergence of such standards.

Major Project: Provide technical advice and support to the AICPA's representative on and technical advisors to the International Auditing Practices Committee(IAPC). Comment on exposure drafts of international auditing standards. Participate in, or identify U.S. volunteer participants for, specific international standards setting projects. Identify opportunities for establishing standards jointly with other standards setters, for example, the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants' Auditing Standards Board. Identify international issues affecting auditing and attestation standards and practices. Help the ASB and other AICPA committees develop and implement AICPA international strategies.

SPECIAL QUALIFICATIONS: Subcommittee members will have a thorough working knowledge of U.S. generally accepted auditing standards and familiarity with the standards setting process as well as a desire to support the AICPA and ASB's efforts in the international arena.

National Accreditation Commission (NAC)

Objective: To lead the AICPA accreditation process by creating an environment that fosters the efficient and effective development of marketplace recognition for CPA-provided services. The NAC recommends and implements specific accreditation programs and provides a continuous and rigorous oversight process of existing accreditation programs, such as market and CPA acceptance, competition, and the appropriateness of entry and maintenance requirements and ultimately oversees the sunset of accreditations if appropriate.

Relations With The Bar Committee

Objective: To maintain cooperative relations between the AICPA and the American Bar Association, to identify areas of common concern to the legal and accounting profession and refer them to the appropriate bodies within the AICPA and ABA for further consideration, and to settle differences by discussion and mutual agreement. The committee comprises the CPA members of the National Conference of Lawyers and Certified Public Accountants.

Major Project: Dialogue with attorney members on emerging or continuing issues of concern or interest to both professions, such as the respective roles of each in tax practice, common professional standards problems, regulatory compliance and liability issues.

SPECIAL QUALIFICATIONS: Substantial interaction with the legal profession in your practice.

Auditing Revenues Steering Task Force

Objective: To oversee the development of a guide on auditing revenue in certain industries that are not covered by existing AICPA Audit and Accounting Guides. The focus will be on the identification of industry-specific issues that present audit risks in revenue recognition, and suggested auditing procedures to address them. The task force will seek input from practitioners and others to identify industries where guidance on consideration thus far include computer software, high technology, service industries, entertainment, and biotech. The task force will identify practitioners who will provide ACIPA staff or outside author with the information necessary to develop the guidance. Finally, the task force will review the guidance.

National CPA Vision Team

Objective: The team's objectives for the next 18-24 months (beginning in March 1999) are:

1. Drive compelling communications of the vision and transformation and maintain the passion for change.
2. Build and maintain a clearing house of best practices, tools, techniques and business models to utilize in achieving the vision.
3. Advance and support the development of powerful guiding coalitions to advance the vision among stakeholders.

These objectives will focus on the innovators, early adopters and early majority of the profession and the institutions, which serve the profession. Among the key stakeholder groups to focus upon are: the leadership of organizations that serve the profession; educators and students; finance, economic and business communities (both CPA client and employer communities); and members of the profession. As the profession now moves into the development and implementation of strategies to achieve the vision, it will be very important to preserve and sustain this grassroots element so vital to the success of the vision process.

4. Facilitate and mentor change management efforts throughout the profession. These objectives will focus on the innovators, early adopters and early majority of the profession. Among the key stakeholder groups to focus upon are: the leadership of organization that serve the profession; educators and students; finance, economic and business communities (both CPA client and employer communities); and members of the profession. As the profession now moves into the development and implementation of strategies to achieve the vision, it will be very important to preserve and sustain this grassroots element so vital to the success of the vision process.

Technology Issues Task Force

Objective: The task force will consider the manner in which auditing standards taken as a whole reflect the use and impact of information technology and whether changes should be made to the standards. The task force will consider recommendations included in the December 1998 report prepared by the Computer Auditing Subcommittee. It also will consider additional questions and issues identified when the standards are considered as a whole in the context of how entities are using technology and how auditors are performing procedures in highly automated environments. Finally, the task force will make recommendations for and develop changes to the standards as deemed appropriate.

Umbrella Standard Prospectus Task Force

Objective: Develop a prospectus for a project to restructure the existing auditing, review and attest standards into one comprehensive and cohesive set of standards. The Steering Committee will consider the likely direction of the project, including a set of standards (perhaps as "Assurance Standards") applicable to all attest services, as well as a structure for standards applicable to specific forms of assurance and specific subject matters. The Steering Committee also will define the advantages of such a project, possible including closer alignment with the apparent trend of international standards and in Canada; greater standards; and easier maintenance of standards in the future.

Management Of An Accounting Practice Committee Including Small Firm Advocacy

Objective: The PCPS Management of an Accounting Practice (MAP) Committee supports PCPS member firms in providing the highest quality professional services. The committee provides resources and information to PCPS member firms in their endeavors to professionally and profitably compete in a changing environment, and serves as an advocate on matters affecting firm management. Small firm members of the committee also champion the interests of PCPS firms with ten or fewer professionals in all issues affecting small firm viability and profitability.

Major Project: State Society MAP Committee support, MAP Member Forums and Networking Programs, Identification of annual top 5 MAP issues, Advocacy and Trends Alert on firm management issues, Videos on firm management issues. Recommendations for MAP Publications and conference sessions. •

SPECIAL QUALIFICATIONS: Members are typically active owners/managing partners of CPA firms.
